BRIDGESTONE

Sure, it's just a tire.
Like the Pacific Coast Highway is just another scenic drive.

For drivers who want to get the most out of their cars.

IT'S BRIDGESTONE OR NOTHING.

OWNERSHIP

PREDATORS HOLDINGS LLC

On December 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates Bridgestone Arena) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and Bridgestone Arena.

Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: David Freeman, Herbert Fritch, Christopher Cigarran, Thomas Cigarran, Joel and Holly Dobberpuhl, DeWitt Thompson V, John Thompson and Warren Woo.

(listed alphabetically)

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Christopher Cigarran is the Vice President of Employer Solutions at Nashville's Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of specialized, comprehensive solutions to help millions of people maintain or improve their health and well-being and, as a result, reduce overall costs.

Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Thomas Cigarran is a co-founder, former CEO and current chairman of the Nashville-based Healthways, Inc., the nation's leading and largest provider of comprehensive health and care support programs and services. He also serves as chairman of AmSurg Corp., a single-specialty, practice-based ambulatory surgery center company. On March 1, 2010, he was named the third Chairman of the Predators.

Cigarran serves as chairman of the Alignment Nashville Operating Board, the Haiti Mission Education Committee and the advisory board of the Vanderbilt Owen School Healthcare MBA program. He also serves as a member of the boards of the Vanderbilt University Medical Center, the Nashville Alliance for Public Education, the Nashville Health Care Council and Harpeth Hall School.

Cigarran is a graduate of Villanova University with a Master's degree from the New York University Graduate School of Business.

JOEL AND HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel Dobberpuhl is the CEO and portfolio manager of Jetstream Capital, a global hedge fund he founded in 2003. Prior to founding Jetstream Capital, Dobberpuhl was a senior portfolio manager for AIM investments. He is also the Predators representative on the NHL Board of Governors.

Dobberpuhl received his degree from Southern Methodist University in 1988 alongside Holly (Stone) Dobberpuhl. Together, the Dobberpuhls are active in several charities based in the Nashville Area and have both served on the boards of Mercy Children's Clinic and Rocketown Ministries. Mrs. Dobberpuhl, a passionate Predators fan, also serves on the board of Saddle Up!, a therapeutic riding facility in Franklin, Tenn.

Joel, Holly, son Samuel and daughter Lily reside in Nashville.

OWNERSHIP

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman is the founder and CEO of 36 Venture Capital, which maintains investments in professional sports clubs (the Predators, in addition to the West Tennessee Diamond Jaxx Double-A baseball club, Derby County Rams ECL soccer club). The company's portfolio also includes operating companies in the apparel (Swiftwick), promotional, media, real estate and education industries.

He was the founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Sevices, which grew to be the second-largest company in the medical waste industry at the time of its sale in 2007. He also practiced mergers and acquisition law for more than 10 years in Dallas and Nashville. Freeman also serves as a member of the Board of Trustees of the United Way of Metropolitan Nashville.

Freeman received his undergraduate degree at the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law. Born and raised in Knoxville, Tenn., the Freeman family resides in Nashville.

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herbert Fritch has served as the chairman and chief executive officer of HealthSpring, Inc., and its predecessor, NewQuest, LLC, since it began operation in 2000. Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has more than 30 years of experience in the managed healthcare business. He is also one of the Predators three alternate governors.

A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch and his wife Barbara reside in Nashville. They are members of United Way's Tocqueville Society and Barbara serves on the board of the Nashville Zoo.

DEWITT C. THOMPSON V

DeWitt (De) C. Thompson V currently serves as the president of Thompson Machinery, the Caterpillar dealer for Middle and West Tennessee and North Mississippi.

Thompson founded PureWorks, Inc. in 1999 and continues to serve as the company's chairman of the board. He also serves as chairman of the Nashville City Paper.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson, his wife Jamee, son DeWitt VI and daughters Helen and Grace reside in Nashville.

JOHN P.G. THOMPSON

John Thompson is an executive sales manager at Thompson Machinery, where he has worked since January 2006. He is a director of PHG Energy, and he owns and manages Thompson Properties, LLC, a real estate property investment property. Prior to working for Thompson Machinery, he served as an asset manager for Covenant Capital Group, LLC.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University, Thompson is active in the Nashville community, although he currently lives in Memphis, Tenn. He serves as a volunteer for preschool children with special needs, is a fundraising founder for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and a member of the Young Alumni Board of Nashville's Montgomery Bell Academy.

WARREN WOO

Warren Woo is the founder of Breakaway Capital, an investment firm based in Los Angeles. Prior to founding Breakaway Capital in 2007, Warren was a Founding Partner and Managing Director at Moelis & Company as well as a Vice Chairman, member of the Board of Directors and Global Head of Financial Sponsors, Hedge Funds and Leveraged Finance of UBS Investment Bank.

He graduated from the Stanford University Graduate School of Business and from UCLA with a B.A. in economics.

Warren is also a member of the Board of Directors of the West Valley Wolves, a youth hockey club. Warren lives in Los Angeles, Calif., with his wife and two sons.

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Nashville Predators President of Hockey Operations/General Manager and Alternate Governor David Poile has been a top voice in the National Hockey League for 28 years (15 with Washington, 13 with Nashville), second only in consecutive active seasons as a GM to the New York Rangers' Glen Sather (30 years). His overall tenure as a general manager ranks as the sixth longest in NHL history, and in December 2007, he added President of Hockey Operations to his title for the first time in his career. Poile added a couple more impressive accomplishments to his lengthy resume in 2010. In February, he watched the United States Olympic squad, which he helped construct as the team's associate general manager, claim silver in the Vancouver Winter Games, and on March 21 at St. Louis, he picked up his 1,000th win as a general manager in a 3-2 Predators win.

According to Jason Farris of nhlgms.com, Poile ranks third all-time in both wins (1,005) and games (2,082) by a general manager. Harry Sinden (1,146) ranks first on the wins list, followed by Glen Sather (1,100), while Sather is first on the games list (2,324) with Sinden (2,152) second.

As the architect of a club built on speed and skill, Poile saw his development through home-grown talent continue to produce in 2009-10 as the team made its fifth playoff appearance in the past six seasons, becoming one of just eight teams League-wide to attain the feat. In total, a franchise-record 17 draft picks suited up for Nashville during its third 100-plus point season in 2009-10, including five 2010 Olympians (Martin Erat, Patric Hornqvist, Alexander Sulzer, silver-medalist Ryan Suter and gold-medalist Shea Weber) and five more who made their NHL debuts (Cody Franson, Teemu Laakso, Nick Spaling, Andreas Thuresson and Colin Wilson). Hornqvist, the final pick of the 2005 Entry Draft (230th overall), was arguably the NHL's breakout performer of 2009-10, increasing his goal total from two as a rookie to 30 in his second season, while five other Poile draft picks (Dan Hamhuis, Kevin Klein, David Legwand, Pekka Rinne and Jordin Tootoo) also helped construct Nashville's young, talented core. Rinne, who signed a two-year contract in February 2010, is one of the League's top up-and-coming young netminders and was selected with the final pick of the now-nonexistent eighth round (258th overall) in 2004.

Poile has supplemented his drafted talent with veterans like Matthew Lombardi, J.P. Dumont and Steve Sullivan, and pleasant surprises like Joel Ward and Marcel Goc to create a balanced lineup.

Under Poile's direction, the Predators have been one of the top teams in the NHL since evolving from an expansion team in the early 2000s, to a bona fide contender. Since the start of 2005-06, Nashville's 228 wins ranks fifth-best in the league, while 131 home victories puts them third in the NHL. Additionally, the Predators have reached the 40-win mark in five consecutive seasons, something accomplished by just four other franchises (Calgary, Detroit, New Jersey and San Jose).

Building a team that was one of 11 in the NHL to hit the 100-point mark in 2009-10 with a 47-29-6 record, despite having a payroll ranked 28th in the League, earned Poile a spot as a finalist for the NHL's inaugural General Manager of the Year Award.

This isn't the first time, however, that Poile has been recognized for his accomplishments in the Music City. In 2006-07, he was recognized by The Sporting News as its Executive of the Year, an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84) and which is determined through a vote of his peers, after the Predators finished the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League. The Predators established franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) during the campaign. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

The aggressive team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has transformed the organization into one of the NHL's most promising clubs. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including assistant general manager Paul Fenton, chief amateur scout Jeff Kealty, and a coaching staff led by Barry Trotz.

MANAGEMENT

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Finals in 2006. In 2009-10, the Admirals made their eighth consecutive playoff appearance and became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points for a seventh consecutive season. The Admirals have also captured the West Division title on three occasions, and have accumulated at least 100 points four times, each season with teams made up predominately of Predators prospects.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world. He was named associate general manager for the 2010 United States Olympic Team on June 6, 2008, and helped select the team built on youthful speed and skill in December 2009. Team USA would become one of the headline stories of the 2010 Games, capturing the hearts of a nation en route to a silver medal. He also served as associate GM for the U.S.'s entries into the 2009 and 2010 International Ice Hockey Federation World Championships, and as general manager at the 1998 and 1999 tournaments.

He was also selected as one of four NHL general managers to sit on the first NHL Competition Committee in 2005. The steering body formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors. In this role, he helped usher in the new era of NHL hockey – featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout and the elimination of the red line – while at the same time drawing upon the wealth of experience accumulated through his many years in the game. The Competition Committee continues to be one of the most influential bodies in the game today.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). David Poile began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982.

For the 1982-83 season, Poile took the reins of a Washington team that had never made the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the postseason 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Finals. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 595-454-124 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top-five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the league's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian – who was named the Predators Director of Hockey Operations in July 2010 – and a granddaughter – Ellie.

JEFF COGEN CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Jeff Cogen brings more than 30 years of experience in the sports and entertainment industry to the Nashville Predators as the team's Chief Executive Officer, a role he was named to on August 10, 2010. As the CEO of both the Predators and Bridgestone Arena, Cogen is responsible for running all business operations of both the club and the arena.

Prior to joining the Predators, Cogen served as President of both the Dallas Stars (2007-10) and Texas Rangers (2004-07) after previously working under the Hicks Sports Group umbrella from 1993-2001. As President of the Rangers, and then the Stars, Cogen ran all business aspects of the franchises, and also served as Hicks Sports Group's primary representative on the American Airlines Center Board that provides oversight and leadership on all arena issues including overall financial performance, capital expenditures, third-party events and team operations.

With the Rangers, where he was also Chief Operating Officer for one year, Cogen increased revenues by 20 percent over a three-year span, and generated revenue streams through a landmark naming-rights deal (Ameriquest Field in Arlington), and through non-traditional outlets such as technological partnerships.

In his first stint with the Stars as Vice President of Marketing and Sales from 1993-99, Cogen helped build the newly relocated franchise's season ticket base to more than 15,000 fans and saw a sellout streak that lasted more than 150 games over a nearly four-season span. After being promoted to Executive V.P. of Marketing and Sales of Southwest Sports Group (entity that operated both the Stars and Rangers), Cogen created synergies between the teams that led to exponential rises in ticket and sponsorship revenue.

Cogen's two stints in Dallas were bridged by a successful two-year stretch as Chief Operating Officer of the Florida Panthers and the then Office Depot Center. From 2001-03, he executed a naming rights agreement for the venue, and boosted income on both the team and building sides via joint entertainment ventures.

The Newport News, Va., native's first taste of professional sports came as Director, and later Vice President of Marketing for Olympia Arenas, the managing company of Detroit Red Wings, Joe Louis Arena and Fox Theater, from 1986-93. He started his career with Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey Shows in 1979, managing more than 100 engagements a week until August 1986.

The graduate of Old Dominion University and his wife, Jill, have three children – twin daughters Kendall and Taylor (16) and a son, Matthew (15).

SEAN HENRY PRESIDENT/CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Sean Henry joins The Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena for the 2010-11 season as their President and Chief Operating Officer. He brings a proven track record of success built upon a unique and aggressive approach to the sports and entertainment industry. As President and COO, he is responsible for the business operations of the franchise and venue.

Henry spent 11 years with the Tampa Bay Lightning and St. Pete Times Forum prior to joining the Predators, serving as both interim CEO and Executive Vice President/COO, which included having his name engraved on the Stanley Cup for the Lightning's 2004 championship. While overseeing business operations for the Lightning, St. Petersburg Times Forum and Single-A baseball's Asheville Tourists, the company saw a dramatic increase in all revenue areas and a remarkable turnaround in attendance, financial results and community standing.

Henry's contributions in his years with the Lightning were vital to the organization's marked financial turnaround. The drastic improvements in the franchise's business came by significantly growing suite, ticket revenues and sponsorship revenues, amending and/or terminating existing service contracts, more than doubling ancillary revenues, re-engineering the City/County lease, turning The St. Pete Times Forum into one of the busiest venues in the country and always putting the team's fans' needs and environment at the forefront of the business. The organization and its management style were lauded throughout the industry for their uniqueness, aggressiveness and innovation.

Henry led the philosophical and physical renovations of the facility and its staff. He designed and implemented the creation of the first all inclusive club in the industry, The XO Club, constructed additional suites, created opera boxes, new customer/client service departments, countless branded areas, and the "Fill the Forum" program of encouraging every employee to assist in building relationships throughout the community to help introduce the team to new season ticket holders. The XO Club, Opera Boxes and Fill the Forum sales plans have been emulated throughout the industry.

Henry's two years prior to his time with the Lightning were spent as Vice President of Sales and Marketing with Unity Motion in St. Louis, Mo., the first company to design, develop and market High Definition television systems to retail markets. With Unity Motion, Henry built the sales department and independent rep firm system to introduce and sell the first HDTV and HD satellite systems to the consumer market, building a retail network of more than 2,000 stores across the country in less than 12 months. He also negotiated the rights to broadcast the first live HD game in the United States with the NBA's Portland Trailblazers.

The Long Island native started his career with Volume Services Inc., a leader in ancillary services in the Sports and Entertainment industry, in 1983 as a busboy and would serve in various building management roles with the company from 1990-97. Henry spent five seasons as General Manager of the Palace of Auburn Hills, home of the NBA's Detroit Pistons, two seasons as Regional General Manager of the Trans World Dome, home of the NFL's St. Louis Rams and one year as Project Capital Manager at Jack Kent Cooke Stadium, the then new home of the NFL's Washington Redskins.

Henry is a graduate of The State University of New York. He and his wife Tracey were very active members in Tampa Bay's youth sports, their children's schools and several other civic and charitable organizations, and look forward to immersing themselves in similar fashion in the Nashville community. Sean and Tracey have relocated to the area with their sons Steven (14) and Matthew (10), and their daughters Amy (6) and Jessica (3).

CHRIS PARKER EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF SALES & MARKETING OFFICER

Now entering his third full season with the Predators/Bridgestone Arena, Executive Vice President/ Chief Sales and Marketing Officer Chris Parker has led the effort to secure partnerships with some of Nashville's – and the nation's – most respected and recognizable companies since being promoted to his current title on March 1, 2009. During the 2009-10 season, Parker directed the organization's efforts to secure Bridgestone Americas Tire Operations Inc., as the new arena naming rights partner. Additionally, he was instrumental in adding the likes of Patron Spirits Company, whose name is now on the Arena's Suite Level Restaurant, the Ford Motor Company/Mid-South Ford Dealers, Comcast, and Nashville-based entities Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Daily's Convenience Stores and Mars Pet Care.

Parker also led the organization's efforts to secure a new long-term television rights agreement with FOX Sports Tennessee/ Sports South. The agreement, which increases the number of telecasts, is also the most lucrative in franchise history. On the ticket sales front, Parker initiated a restructuring effort that resulted in the creation of an inside sales team and a fan relations group more focused and dedicated on the needs of existing ticket holders.

In his role with the Predators/Bridgestone Arena, Parker oversees all sales functions of the organization including ticket sales, corporate partnerships and premium seats. He also directs all aspects of the club's business and broadcast partnerships, both locally, nationally and with the NHL league office.

Parker originally joined the Predators in March, 2008 as Senior Vice President of Corporate Development. Prior to coming to Nashville, he served as the Vice President of Business Development with Palace Sports & Entertainment in Detroit. While with Palace Sports and Entertainment, the ownership umbrella which includes the Pistons (NBA), the Shock (WNBA), the Palace at Auburn Hills and several concert venues, Parker managed parts of the corporate marketing department and all new business initiatives.

Prior to his time with Palace Sports, Parker spent nearly 10 years with Silicon Valley Sports & Entertainment (SVSE) the parent company of the San Jose Sharks, HP Pavilion Management and the SAP Open tennis tournament. Parker spent his last five years in San Jose as the Director, Corporate Partnerships where he oversaw all aspects of the organization's corporate sales and service initiatives. During his tenure with SVSE, Parker was responsible for more than $100 million in gross sales, including the naming rights to HP Pavilion, the SAP Open (ATP) and the Comerica Bank Club.

A graduate of the University of Michigan with a degree in sports management and communications, Parker began his sports career with the International Hockey League head office in suburban Detroit.

Parker resides in Nashville and serves on several philanthropic boards and committees including the Alumni Advisory Board of the Division of Kinesiology at the University of Michigan, as Vice Chairman of the Bernard P. "Pat" Maloy Endowed Scholarship at Michigan and the Board of Directors for Junior Achievement of Middle Tennessee.

GERRY HELPER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY COMMUNICATIONS & PUBLIC RELATIONS

Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and was named senior vice president and special assistant to the president in August 2009. Now in his second season in this role, Helper's duties include serving as a liaison with the Sports Authority, Sports Council, Metro and State Governments and the new Music City Center being constructed across the street from Bridgestone Arena. Helper is also responsible for external organizational and franchise communication issues and the development of strategic communications for Bridgestone Arena. He also serves as president of the Predators Foundation, which has awarded more than $2.5 million to Nashville area charitable and community service organizations, including a single-season record 115 grants in 2009-10.

Helper has also been active with USA Hockey, serving as a communications liaison for the United States' silver medal-winning entry at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and on USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99.

In his prior role with the Predators from 1998-2009, Helper oversaw the club's media and public relations efforts, publications, the team's website, amateur hockey efforts and community relations initiatives. He continues to serve on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to Bridgestone Arena.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's vice president of communications. He assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. He also spent time as the NHL's director of information (1987-89) and director of public relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86). He also worked several Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Games in his time with the League and the Sabres.

Helper is on the board of directors for the YMCA and the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a BA in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of Leadership Music.

Helper resides in Franklin, Tenn., with his wife, Kim, and daughters, Renee and Abigail.

CHRIS JUNGHANS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Chris Junghans was named Senior Vice President, Corporate Development for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena in July of 2009. In this role he directs both the Corporate Partnerships and Premium Seat sales and service staff which strive to bring unique customer experiences and partnerships to key customers and brands. In his short tenure he's helped to secure partnerships with some of the world's most recognizable brands including McDonald's, Pepsi and Anheuser-Busch.

Prior to his current role, Junghans led the Premium Seat division for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. During his tenure as both a Director and Vice President, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent increase in sales. In addition, he helped pioneer the Bench Seats program which has become a key source of revenue for most of the NHL's 30 clubs.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers in ticket sales and quickly moved through the ranks. After a successful campaign in Florida, he accepted the role of Group and Suite Sales Manager with the Predators where his teams consistently ranked near the top in annual group sales dollars.

In 2007 he was promoted to Vice President, Premium Seat Sales where he formulated a plan to renew more than 60 percent of the team's suite business. The plan and execution proved successful as the team earned a 25 percent increase year over year and became a model for other franchises.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte where he was the starting catcher for the UNCC 49ers and was drafted in the 11th round by the Milwaukee Brewers. Chris resides in Franklin, with his wife, Carolina. They have three children, Lia, Alex and Sofie.

MICHELLE KENNEDY EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT/CORPORATE COUNSEL & CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators full-time in March of 2008 as In-House Counsel. Since joining the organization, Michelle's role has grown from her initial charge of dealing with contractual and compliance matters into a larger role that includes serving as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group, in addition to being involved in, and coordinating, all legal matters. Kennedy also plays a primary role in managing risk and legal issues for Powers Management, the company that operates Bridgestone Arena. In this capacity, she is extensively involved with key Sports Authority and Metro Government matters. Kennedy is responsible for oversight of the Human Resources department as well.

Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an Associate Director of Athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school.

Kennedy obtained a B.A. in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Kentucky, Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

PAUL FENTON ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Now in his 13th season with the Predators, and his fifth as the club's assistant general manager, Paul Fenton has been instrumental in bringing in many of Nashville's core players, primarily through the draft, but also through trades and free agent signings.

After serving as the director of player personnel for the Predators' first eight seasons, Fenton was promoted to assistant general manager on June 5, 2006, where he oversees the Predators' amateur player development, manages the team's professional and amateur scouting staff and advises President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile on player personnel decisions. He has been in charge of all player acquisitions since joining the Predators and managed the club's Entry Draft efforts since 2003 (when the team selected Ryan Suter, Shea Weber, Kevin Klein and Alexander Sulzer), doing so jointly with Chief Amateur Scout Jeff Kealty in the process since 2008. Fenton also serves as general manager of the Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League, who made their eighth consecutive playoff appearance and became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points for a seventh consecutive season in 2009-10.

Fenton joined the Predators after spending five seasons in the Anaheim Ducks' hockey operations department. He served as a scout during his first three seasons with the Ducks and as the chief professional scout the last two years. A number of players drafted during Fenton's run with the Ducks – such as Paul Kariya, Steve Rucchin, Ruslan Salei and Mike LeClerc – led Anaheim to the 2003 Stanley Cup Finals. The Springfield, Mass., native also helped facilitate one of the Anaheim franchise's largest trades, the February 1996 acquisition of Teemu Selanne.

Fenton played eight seasons in the NHL before joining the scouting ranks. He amassed 100 goals and 83 assists in 411 NHL contests while playing for seven different NHL teams, including San Jose during the Sharks' inaugural season (1991-92). In 1989-90, the former Boston University Terrier scored an NHL career-high 32 goals for the Winnipeg Jets, and his impressive playing resume also includes three selections to AHL and IHL All-Star teams.

Paul and his wife, Nona, reside in Brentwood. They have two sons, P.J. and Owen. P.J. was the San Jose Sharks' sixth selection, 162nd overall (fifth round), in the 2005 NHL Entry Draft and will play his second professional season in Germany in 2010-11 with the Dusseldorf (DEG) Metro Stars. Owen is entering the doctorate program in chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) in the fall of 2010.

MARTIN GELINAS DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Martin Gelinas enters his second season as the Predators Director of Player Development in 2010-11 after having a distinguished playing career that spanned 21 seasons and three decades. In his role, Gelinas is responsible for following and evaluating prospects drafted by Nashville, in addition to working with players on all levels throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. He assists them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

A native of Shawinigan, Quebec, Gelinas posted 660 points (309g-351a) in 1,273 NHL games (1988-2008), and also played two professional seasons in Switzerland (2004-05 and 2008-09) amassing 83 points (53g-30a) in 69 games. The left wing with Edmonton, Quebec, Vancouver, Carolina, Calgary and Florida rounded out his NHL career with the Predators in 2007-08, appearing in 57 games (9g-11a-20pts). At the close of the 2009-10 season, Gelinas' regular-season game total ranked 59th all-time.

He became the oldest player ever to don a Nashville jersey when he made his debut with the club on October 4, 2007, and was the team's nominee for the Masterton Trophy after having his season cut short due to a knee injury sustained on February 21, 2008. His top offensive season came in 1996-97 with the Canucks when he registered 68 points (35g-33a) in 74 games.

Gelinas won a Stanley Cup with Edmonton in his first full NHL season (1989-90), and also advanced to the Cup final with Vancouver (1994), Carolina (2002) and Calgary (2004). During his 19-season career, he appeared in the Stanley Cup Playoffs 10 times, notching 56 points (23g-33a) in 147 games. He is one of only two players in NHL history to have scored three playoff series-clinching goals in one season (the other was Ken Linseman), achieving the feat during Calgary's 2004 Cup run. Two of the goals were in overtime, and he also scored the overtime goal in Game Six against Toronto that put the Carolina Hurricanes into the Stanley Cup Finals in 2002.

The Los Angeles Kings' first choice (seventh overall) in the 1988 NHL Entry Draft, Gelinas was traded to Edmonton in the package that sent Wayne Gretzky to L.A. on August 9, 1988.

Gelinas is based out of Calgary, Alberta, where he resides with his wife, Jane, son, Matthew, and daughters, Cameron and Morgan. Matthew was selected by Swift Current in the 2010 Western Hockey League Bantam Draft.

BRIAN POILE DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian Poile enters his first season with the Nashville Predators as the Director of Hockey Operations in 2010-11. Poile's primary responsibilities for the team include preparation and research for negotiating player contracts, salary arbitration and overseeing minor league affiliation agreements with the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals and ECHL's Cincinnati Cyclones. He is also involved with fiscal and strategic planning, evaluating pro and amateur players and managing the club's payroll, salary cap and compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the day-to-day business operations of the hockey department.

Poile began his career with the NHL's Dallas Stars, spending one season as the Stars' Director of Team Services and three seasons as the Director of Hockey Operations for their American Hockey League affiliate, the Utah Grizzlies, in Salt Lake City. In his role in Utah, Poile managed the Grizzlies hockey department, club roster, budget, player contracts, team travel, schedules, training camps, scouting and player call-ups. He also served as an Alternate Team Governor, in addition to managing NHL/ECHL affiliation agreements and the AHL, Professional Hockey Players Association and Collective Bargaining Agreement issues.

Hockey roots run deep in the Poile family. He is the son of Predators' President of Hockey Operations/General Manager, David Poile, and grandson of Hockey Hall of Fame Inductee, Norman "Bud" Poile. Poile earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Boston College in 2000.

SCOUTING STAFF

JEFF KEALTY CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Kealty, now in his 10th season with the organization, has been managing the club's amateur scouting operation as the Predators Chief Amateur Scout since July 25, 2007. In addition to monitoring the best draft-eligible talent around the globe, Kealty keeps an eye on the CHL, NCAA and other junior leagues in North America and Europe. Reporting to Assistant General Manager Paul Fenton, Kealty also spearheads the team's annual efforts at the NHL Entry Draft.

The Boston native has overseen Nashville's past three drafts, helping to bolster the club's depth across the board. The 2010 Draft saw Kealty and staff select big, two-way forward Austin Watson (18th overall), just one year after tabbing highly skilled blueliner Ryan Ellis (11th overall). In his first draft as chief amateur scout, Nashville made seven trades, eventually selecting forward Colin Wilson (seventh overall), who played half the 2009-10 season at the NHL level, and blue-chip goaltender Chet Pickard (18th overall) in the first round. It was the first time in franchise history the team had two first-round selections.

A former first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty was signed by Nashville as a free agent in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty, his wife Lynn, daughter Lydia and son James (twins) reside in Norfolk, Mass.

PASSION for EXCELLENCE

BARRY TROTZ HEAD COACH

Guiding the ship for the Predators is 2010 Jack Adams Award finalist Barry Trotz, the first and only head coach in club history. In his 12 seasons and 13 years as the Predators' bench boss, Trotz has put himself among some legendary names, ranking sixth all-time in both games coached (902) and wins (411) with a single franchise. Additionally, he is only the second coach in NHL history to spend each of the first 10 seasons as a team's head coach joining the New York Rangers' Lester Patrick (13 seasons, 1926-39).

Trotz, the second-longest tenured coach in the NHL behind only Buffalo's Lindy Ruff, finished second in voting for the Jack Adams Award as "the NHL coach adjudged to have contributed the most to his team's success" (as voted on by the NHL Broadcasters' Association) in his first time as an award finalist in 2009-10 after leading his squad to a 47-29-6 record for 100 points, the third-best finish in franchise history and good for Nashville's fifth playoff berth in the last six seasons, something accomplished by only seven other franchises. The club played its best hockey down the stretch, posting the NHL's fourth-best record after the Olympic break (14-6-1). On April 3, 2010 – the day Nashville clinched a spot in the postseason – Trotz coached his 900th NHL game joining Al Arbour (N.Y. Islanders), Billy Reay (Chicago), Lindy Ruff (Buffalo), Jack Adams (Detroit) and Toe Blake (Montreal) as the only coaches to reach the milestone with one team.

He also continued his ascension up the wins with a single franchise list during 2009-10. In the season finale vs. St. Louis, he won his 411th career contest, moving past coaching legend Scotty Bowman's tenure with Detroit and into sixth all-time behind only Arbour (739), Ruff (483), Glen Sather (464, Edmonton), Dick Irvin (431, Montreal) and Bowman's 419 wins with Montreal.

Trotz's mission has evolved from fielding a competitive and hardworking expansion club to directing a young, hungry, hard-working group that is perennially a playoff contender. Since the Predators advanced to the postseason for the first time six campaigns ago, they have averaged more than 97 points per season (91 in 2003-04, 106 in 2005-06, 110 in 2006-07, 91 in 2007-08, 88 in 2008-09 and 100 in 2009-10). He has also led the Predators to the fifth-most wins (228) and third-most home victories (131) in the League since the start of the 2005-06 season.

Trotz also raked in the individual accolades following the 2006-07 campaign after guiding the Predators to the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire National Hockey League, notching franchise records in points (110), wins (51), road wins (23) and goals (272) in the process. He was named 2007 Coach of the Year by The Sporting News, an honor determined through a vote of his peers, in addition to finishing fourth in Jack Adams voting and serving as an assistant coach for the Western Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game.

The 47-year-old Winnipeg native reached his goal of becoming an NHL head coach when he was named to his current position on Aug. 6, 1997. After a year aggressively scouting talent in North America and Europe, Trotz and his staff made the most of their opportunity by leading the inaugural edition (1998-99) of the Predators to a 28-47-7 record. Starting with a 3-2 victory over the Carolina Hurricanes on Oct. 13, 1998, the Predators' 28 wins were the third-most in expansion history.

On March 1, 2003, Trotz coached his 392nd game with the Nashville Predators, establishing a league record for most games coached by a team's original coach since the NHL's first expansion in 1967. He surpassed current Nashville broadcast analyst Terry Crisp's mark of 391 games coached as the Tampa Bay Lightning's first coach from 1992-97.

Prior to joining the Predators, Trotz spent five seasons (1992-97) as the head coach of the Washington Capitals' primary developmental affiliate in the American Hockey League. He was named head coach of the Baltimore Skipjacks in 1992 after one season as an assistant coach. Following the franchise's relocation to Portland, Maine in 1993, he led the Portland Pirates to two Calder Cup Finals appearances over the next four seasons. In 1994-95, Trotz coached Portland to a Calder Cup Championship and a league-best 43-27-10 record and captured AHL Coach of the Year honors. In 2006, he was honored with election to the Pirates' Hall of Fame.

COACHING STAFF

Trotz has also gained experience coaching on the international stage, serving as an assistant coach for Team Canada at the IIHF World Championships on three occasions. In 2003, he helped the Canadians strike gold in Russia, and in 2009 he helped guide Canada to a silver medal in Switzerland. The first time he answered the call for his nation came at the 2002 Championships in Sweden.

Trotz began his coaching career in 1984 as an assistant with the University of Manitoba. He then served two seasons (1985-87) as the head coach and general manager of the Dauphin Kings junior hockey club before returning to the University of Manitoba as the head coach in 1987. In January 2001, Trotz was inducted into the University's Hall of Fame.

During the 1987 campaign, Trotz also served as a scout for the Spokane Chiefs (WHL) and a part-time scout for the Capitals. In 1988, he joined Washington as a full-time western scout, and the next season he became the Caps' chief western scout.

Before coaching, Trotz played junior hockey for Regina (WHL) from 1979-83, capturing a WHL championship in 1979-80. The defenseman registered 102 points (19g-83a) and 490 penalty minutes in 204 games.

The popular head coach and his family are active in a variety of service and charitable initiatives in the Middle Tennessee community. This commitment was recognized when Trotz was honored with the Community Spirit Award (in recognition for community service) at the 2005 O'Charley's Dinner of Champions, presented by the Nashville Sports Council. For the past several seasons, the Trotz family has donated $500 to My Friend's House (a United Way agency) for each Nashville victory. Trotz is an active board member for the Williamson County YMCA and the United Way, and in 2004-05, coached Nashville high school student-athletes. He also works closely with Best Buddies of Tennessee, a nonprofit organization dedicated to establishing a global volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-on-one friendships, integrated employment and leadership development for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Barry and his wife, Kim, reside in Brentwood along with their four children: Shalan, Tyson, Tiana and Nolan.

BRENT PETERSON ASSOCIATE COACH

Brent Peterson enters his 13th season as a member of the Predators' coaching staff. He was originally appointed to the position of assistant coach on June 19, 1998 and was promoted to associate coach on June 19, 2003. Peterson has helped guide the team to the Stanley Cup Playoffs in five of its last six seasons.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winter Hawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winter Hawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Canadian Hockey League's Memorial Cup. He was originally appointed co-coach in 1991-92 and was named head coach for the 1993-94 season. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta., native spent two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former Detroit first-round pick (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-89 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Peterson teaches area hockey coaches through the Predators' Coaches Clinic series during each season. He is also active in many of the Predators' community-relations initiatives and served as the head coach for Middle Tennessee State University's club team in 2004-05.

In 2007, he established the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation to benefit Parkinson's Disease research, education and support groups. The Foundation holds a dinner/auction event, a celebrity golf tournament and a golf scramble each year, in addition to sponsoring a team for the Country Music Marathon.

Brent and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin, Tenn. They have three children: Ryan, Brad and Kristin.

PETER HORACHEK ASSISTANT COACH

Peter Horachek was named assistant coach of the Predators on June 19, 2003. In five of his first six seasons in the NHL, he helped guide the Predators to Stanley Cup Playoff berths.

In 2002-03, Horachek served as head coach of Nashville's primary developmental affiliate, the Milwaukee Admirals of the American Hockey League. He guided the Admirals to a 32-27-14-7 record and their first playoff series victory since 1998.

Prior to becoming head coach of the Admirals, Horachek, a former head coach/director of hockey operations for the ECHL's Nashville Knights, won championships as a coach and a player. In 2000-01, Horachek coached the Orlando Solar Bears to the International Hockey League championship. The Solar Bears went 12-4 in the Turner Cup Playoffs and Horachek was named the 2001 IHL Coach of the Year.

The Stoney Creek, Ont., native took over the coaching duties for Orlando in 1999 after serving as an assistant the previous four seasons. After the Orlando franchise ceased operations following the 2000-01 season, Horachek coached the Trenton Titans of the ECHL to a Northern Conference Championship (46-16-10, .708) in 2001-02.

Horachek began his coaching career in the IHL as an assistant coach with Saginaw in 1987-88. He spent one year as a player/assistant coach with Flint, and another as a player/head coach in Norway. Horachek was named head coach/director of hockey operations for the Nashville Knights (ECHL) in 1990.

As a player, Horachek held the title of team captain in four of his five seasons with the Saginaw/Flint Generals and won a Turner Cup Championship in 1984. In 545 career professional games, he tallied 188 goals and 238 assists (188g-238a-426pts).

Horachek and his wife, Stacy, reside in Franklin, Tenn. His son, Cullen, is 18 years old.

COACHING STAFF

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his seventh season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators system. Good also runs the club's prospect development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School in the off-season.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on January 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June of 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey."

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the director of speed-strength and conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and the Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the Long Beach Ice Dogs (ECHL). The Colorado native served as the assistant speed-strength and conditioning coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs (IHL). He also served as strength and conditioning coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the student assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor of arts degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, Olympic weightlifting and kettlebell training.

MITCH KORN GOALTENDING COACH

Mitch Korn is in his 13th season as the goaltending coach for the Nashville Predators and in his 20th season in the NHL. He works with all netminders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), Cincinnati (ECHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

Korn has helped several Nashville goaltenders burst onto the NHL scene dating back to a player selected by the club in the 1998 Expansion Draft. Two-time Czech Olympian, 2010 World Champion and NHL All-Star Tomas Vokoun developed into one of the NHL's elite netminders under Korn's tutelage, while Chris Mason would follow, becoming a legitimate NHL starter after several seasons of working with Korn. In 2007-08, Dan Ellis developed into a No. 1 goalie after playing in just one NHL game prior to joining the Predators, leading the NHL in save percentage (.924) in his first full campaign, before giving way to rookie Pekka Rinne in 2008-09. After finishing among the League's Top 10 in goals-against average (2.38), save percentage (.917) and shutouts (7, franchise record) as a rookie, Rinne, a 2004 eighth round pick, became just the second Predators goalie to record 30 wins (32) in 2009-10.

Prior to joining the Predators on July 23, 1998, Korn spent seven seasons coaching the netminders in the Buffalo Sabres organization, where he enjoyed great success while working with two-time Hart Trophy-winner Dominik Hasek. Under Korn's tutelage, Hasek captured four Vezina Trophies and led the NHL with the best save percentage five times. Korn also saw Buffalo's goaltending tandem (Hasek and Hall-of-Famer Grant Fuhr) capture the NHL's Jennings Trophy (lowest team goals-against average) during the 1994-95 season. Besides Hasek and Fuhr, Korn also coached Olaf Kolzig, Steve Shields and Martin Biron.

The New York City native recently retired from Miami University's Goggin Ice Center in Oxford, Ohio where he worked in a variety of capacities for 30 years. Korn, who runs goaltending and defensemen schools around the country in the off-season, also contributes regularly to several hockey publications including USA Hockey Magazine and Goalies' World.

Korn began his college hockey career at Kent State University in the late 1970s and started his coaching career at KSU in 1979. He continued coaching the goaltenders at Miami University until joining the Sabres in 1991. Korn has more than 34 years of coaching experience.

Mitch's daughter, Ashley, is a graduate of Miami University, skated on the university's national championship Synchronized Skating Team, and is currently pursuing a Masters Degree at Cal State – Fullerton.

TRAINING STAFF

DAN REDMOND HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Dan Redmond is in his 13th season as the head athletic trainer of the Predators. Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, Redmond spent five seasons as the athletic trainer of the Portland Pirates of the American Hockey League (where he worked with Barry Trotz, head coach of the Predators) and four seasons with the AHL's Baltimore Skipjacks. He also spent three years (1987-89) in the Cleveland Indians organization as the athletic trainer for their developmental clubs. He served two stints as a graduate assistant with Radnor High School (Radnor, Pa.) and Temple University Sports Medicine Center.

Redmond is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. He worked his 1,500th game in professional hockey as an athletic trainer on January 13, 2009.

Redmond resides in Lebanon, Tenn., with his wife, Barbara, daughter, Danielle and son, Sean.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers is in his 13th season as head equipment manager of the Nashville Predators. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers also works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers was the head equipment manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2008 NHL All-Star game in Dallas. He has served as the equipment manager for Team USA at the 2006 Winter Olympics and at the IIHF World Championships in 2005 and from 1998-2002. Rogers also worked as Team USA's equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany. The veteran worked his 1,500th game as an equipment manager in professional hockey on January 10, 2009.

Prior to joining the Predators in July 1998, the SUNY Brockport graduate spent seven seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Rogers spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the Hampton Roads Admirals of the ECHL in 1989-90.

Pete, his wife, Judy, and daughter, Alexandra, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

BROADCASTERS

PETE WEBER PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

"Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber enters his 13th season as the team's primary play-by-play announcer in 2010-11. His insight into the team and the game of hockey is a regular feature in local sports talk radio and television, and he also consistently contributes to the Predators' website and team publications.

Pete is slated to be a "Western Conference Insider" on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio's "NHL Home Ice" service (XM 204) once again in 2010-11, and is slated to join "Slapshot Radio" as a co-host this season. In addition to his duties with the team, Weber co-hosted SportsNight (a popular local sportstalk radio program) from July 2003 until August 2005 and has filled in as a program host for ESPN Radio. Since 2005, Pete has joined in on the Triple-A baseball Nashville Sounds' broadcasts and also produced and hosted weekly podcasts: "This Week in the Minor Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber spent two seasons (1995-97) as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Buffalo Sabres, three seasons (1978-81) as the color analyst for the Los Angeles Kings and also served as host of "Hockey Night with the Buffalo Sabres" from 1990-93. Along with his 22 seasons of NHL experience, Weber has served as a play-by-play voice in baseball (Buffalo Bisons, 1983-95), basketball (Seattle SuperSonics, 1981-82) and football (University of Buffalo, 1992). He has called the hockey action for the University of Notre Dame (1974-76) and the University at Buffalo (1976-78) and was part of the Buffalo Bills' broadcast team during their four Super Bowl seasons (1990-93).

Weber was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He was part of a winning Predators' broadcast effort in winning a regional Emmy in 2003, and won another as co-host of the 2008 Mid-South Regional telecast.

The Galesburg, Ill., native is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame. Weber and his wife, Claudia, reside in Nashville.

TERRY CRISP COLOR ANALYST

Entering his 13th season with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides the color commentary on the club's television and radio broadcasts and helps comprise one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the league. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' website and local sports talk radio and worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships.

Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He has won three Stanley Cup Championships, two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989), and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound, Ont., native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: he was a player with the inaugural editions of the St. Louis Blues in 1967 and the New York Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Nashville head coach Barry Trotz broke the mark in 2003. In the 2004 NHL Stanley Cup Finals, the Lightning defeated the Flames – the team he coached to the Cup in 1989. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisps have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley.

BROADCASTERS

TOM CALLAHAN RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Tom Callahan enters his third season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team in 2010-11. Callahan will continue to assume radio play-by-play duties on the Predators Radio Network for the 60 Predators games aired on FOX Sports Tennessee, while contributing to the other 22 broadcasts as a rink-side reporter for all games that are not televised (or are televised exclusively by a national rightsholder). For those games, the 12-season team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color commentator) will be in the radio booth.

In addition to broadcasting the games, Callahan helps grow and maintain the Predators Radio Network, developing and implementing programs and tools to expand the regional fan base through Tennessee, Kentucky and Alabama. He also contributes regularly to nashvillepredators.com, the team's publications and serves as a face in the community for the organization.

Callahan came to Nashville from the American Hockey League's Peoria Rivermen, where he served as director of communications in 2007-08. Prior to working in Peoria, the Lackawanna, N.Y., native spent four seasons with the Augusta Lynx of the ECHL, and three seasons with the Elmira Jackals of the then-United Hockey League, serving in similar positions. He also has experience in then-Western Professional Hockey League (now Central Hockey League) and in minor league baseball.

Callahan, who is a 1998 graduate of St. John Fisher College in Rochester, N.Y., resides in Nashville with his wife Meaghan.

STU GRIMSON RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Stu Grimson enters his third season as a color analyst on some of the Predators Radio Network broadcasts. Grimson, who played in 30 games with the Predators during the 2001-02 season, posted 17 goals, 22 assists and 2,113 penalty minutes in 729 career games with Calgary, Chicago, Anaheim, Detroit, Hartford, Carolina, Los Angeles and Nashville from 1988-2002.

After retiring from hockey following the 2001-02 season, Grimson returned to school and received his law degree from the University of Memphis in December of 2005. The Kamloops, British Columbia native then went to work as in-house counsel for the NHLPA for two years before returning to Nashville where he currently works as an attorney with Kay, Griffin, Enkema & Brothers PLLC.

Stu resides in Franklin with his wife, Pam, their three daughters, Erin, Hannah and Jayne and son, Kristjan.

MARK HOWARD RINKSIDE REPORTER

Mark Howard enters his third season as a rinkside reporter for all Predators' home games on FOX Sports Tennessee. Joining Pete Weber and Terry Crisp on the broadcast, Howard provides player and coach interviews during pre and post-game coverage as well as intermissions.

Howard hosts the award-winning Wakeup Zone on WGFX, 104.5 The Zone which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. He also does a radio pre and post-game show for Titans Radio and has worked as a television host of TSSAA for the State High School football and basketball championships since 2004.

Prior to hosting The Wakeup Zone, Howard was a sports anchor at WTVF-TV (CBS) in Nashville and worked for 103.3 WKDF doing morning sports from 1997-2002. The West Hartford, Conn., native who also worked in television in Evansville, Ind., from 1983-86, has called action for Triple-A baseball in Wichita and Evansville and college hockey at Cornell. He graduated from Ithaca College in upstate New York in 1980 with a degree in history and political science.

Mark is single and has an 8-year-old son Jack.

KELLY SPARKS BROADCAST SERVICES MANAGER

Kelly Sparks, who joined the Predators in February 2007 and is the team's broadcast coordinator, will also be serving as a host for nashvillepredators.com for the second season in 2010-11.

The Paintsville, Kentucky native worked for ABC's affiliate WKBO-TV in Bowling Green, Kentucky as a news anchor, producer and reporter prior to joining the Predators. Sparks attended Western Kentucky University where she majored in broadcast news and public relations and minored in marketing.

Sparks resides in Hendersonville with her husband Mitch.

BROADCAST PARTNERS

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

The Nashville Predators and FOX Sports Tennessee enter their 13th season as partners in 2010-11, the first of a four-year deal that will see FS Tennessee and sister station SportsSouth televise an all-time high 60 regular-season games. The 2011-12 and 2012-13 seasons will see the stations broadcast 65 Predators regular-season contests, and the total will increase to 70 games in 2013-14. Predators' telecasts on the networks will reach more than four million cable and satellite households across Tennessee, Kentucky and northern portions of Mississippi and Alabama.

The FOX Sports Tennessee broadcast duo of play-by-play announcer Pete Weber and analyst Terry Crisp enter their 12th season calling Predators' action, and Mark Howard returns for his third season of rink-side reporting at home games.

Predators LIVE returns following each game telecast on FOX Sports Tennessee, and features highlights, analysis and interviews. Predators players and personnel will also be featured in FOX Sports Tennessee original programs Predators Snapshot.

The regional sports networks serving the Southeast – FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.9 million cable and satellite television households in seven states across the Southeast and are the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Hawks, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Bobcats, Memphis Grizzlies and the Nashville Predators, as well as the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference. SportSouth reaches more than 10 million homes in six Southeastern states and is the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Thrashers and Southern Conference. SportSouth also offers expanded coverage of the University of Georgia, University of South Carolina and University of Tennessee. Combined, the four networks produce more than 800 live local events each year.

PREDATORS RADIO NETWORK

This offseason the Predators announced a multi-year radio deal that saw WBUZ 102.9 The Buzz come on board as the Predators new flagship radio station. Radio Play-by-Play announcer Tom Callahan, who returns for his third season behind the microphone, will call the action for the club's 60 regular season games which air on FOX Sports Tennessee. For the Predators other 22 contests, he will join the longtime team of Pete Weber (play-by-play) and Terry Crisp (color analyst) to conduct interviews and provide reports around the arena.

Owned by the Nashville-based Cromwell Group – WBUZ will carry select preseason, all regular-season and all post-season Predators games each year. This marks the first time since 2003-04 season that all Predators regular-season and playoff contests will be aired on the same station. These games will include a 30-minute pregame show as well as an hour long post-game show. All post game shows following home games originate from Bridgestone Arena's Patrón Platinum Club and will be open to all ticketed fans in attendance.

The Cromwell Group, Inc. - which also owns WPRT 102.5 FM The Party and WQZQ 102.1 FM The Light - is a privately held company with its corporate office in Nashville, Tenn. The company manages 22 radio stations (Six AM and 16 FM) in five markets – Decatur, Ala. (4), Effingham, Ill. (3), Mattoon, Ill. (3), Vandalia, Ill. (2), Owensboro/Tell City, Ky. (7), Nashville, Tenn. (3) – and in four states (Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee). WBUZ has been in operation since 1999 as Nashville's premiere rock station, 102.9 The Buzz.

Several regional affiliates complete the broadcast radio network of the Nashville Predators during the hockey season, as games are broadcast throughout the state of Tennessee, as well as parts of Kentucky and Alabama. These affiliates are as follows:

WHUB	1400 AM	Cookeville, Tenn.
WWTM	1400 AM	Decatur, Ala.
WMSR	1320 AM	Manchester, Tenn.
WHOP	95.3 FM/1230 AM	Hopkinsville, Ky.
WCDS	1230 AM	Glasgow, Ky.
WAKI	1230 AM	McMinnville, Tn.
WBGN	1340 AM	Bowling Green, Ky.
WMLR	1230 AM	Hohenwald, Tenn.
WCSV	1490 AM	Crossville, Tenn.
WMRB	98.5 AM/910 AM	Columbia, Tenn.
WNTC	103.9 FM	Drakesboro, Ky.

POWERS MANAGEMENT/BRIDGESTONE ARENA

POWERS MANAGEMENT
BRIDGESTONE ARENA
501 Broadway
(615) 770-2000 • Fax (615) 770-2010

The facility management company Powers Management was established in 1997, and it took over the day-to-day operation and management of Nashville's premier sports and entertainment facility, Bridgestone Arena, on July 1, 2000. Inheriting the building's original management contract from Leisure Management, Inc., Powers Management is retained by the Nashville Sports Authority and Metro Nashville.

Since its opening on December 18, 1996, more than 12 million fans have entered the doors to "Experience the Excellence" of Bridgestone Arena, home of world-class entertainment and sporting events. Bridgestone Arena hosts more than 150 events each year, ranging from Predators games to concerts, family shows and community events. Additionally, the state-of-the-art facility hosts a large number of conventions and business conferences. It has ranked in the top 30 in overall U.S. arena ticket sales while averaging more than 20 concerts per year each of the past three years. The last three years (2007-09), Bridgestone Arena has been nominated for the Pollstar Concert Industry Venue of the Year, and in 2008 it won both the Large Concert Venue of the Year Award from the International Entertainment Buyers Association and Prime Site Award from Facilities Magazine. It won the Prime Site Award again in 2009, in addition to earning Academy of Country Music Venue of the Year Award honors for the first time in 2009.

A report issued in 2004 estimated that Bridgestone Arena had an economic impact of more than $618 million on downtown Nashville from 1997-2003, and Bridgestone Arena events annually are responsible for more than $100 million of economic impact. Four days of the NCAA or SEC men's basketball tournament means over $6 million of economic impact on the community, while a full season of Predators hockey brings approximately $80 million in impact.

The one million-square-foot facility, located in downtown Nashville (corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue), has also spurred downtown growth in the last eight years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, the Frist Museum of the Visual Arts, the Schermerhorn Symphony Center, and in 2013, the Music City Center, a new convention center being build across Demonbreun Street from the Arena.

Bridgestone Arena serves a variety of "non-traditional" functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents as well. Bridgestone Arena tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, a Sirius/XM Radio studio, and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. Bridgestone Arena features The Patron Platinum Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience, which is open before and after Predators games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions.

The arena also houses more than 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used by a number of touring acts. Metro's Registry of Deeds and the Metro North Police precinct are also located inside Bridgestone Arena.

In addition to serving as the home of the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena annually hosts the CMT and CMA Music Awards, broadcasted live to national audiences. Since October 2009, the venue has served as the final stop on Brooks & Dunn's "Last Rodeo" Tour, a stop for Paul McCartney's North American tour, and three star-laden benefit concerts. "Nashville Rising" raised $2.2 million for flood relief efforts in June 2010, while "We're All for the Hall" concerts – hosted by Keith Urban – were held in October 2009 and 2010 as fundraisers for the Country Music Hall of Fame.

After successfully holding the event in 2010, Bridgestone Arena will also host the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2019 Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournaments, giving Nashville more SEC men's basketball tournaments than any other city. It will also host the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2011 and 2012 SEC Women's Basketball Tournaments, and the first and second rounds of the 2012 NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation strives to meet the educational, social, health and cultural needs of our community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Through several fundraisers held throughout the year, the Predators Foundation has awarded more than $2.5 million to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-area charities and community service organizations since its creation.

13TH ANNUAL FIRST TENNESSEE PREDATORS FOUNDATION DR. MAC MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Nashville Predators Foundation hosts its annual First Tennessee Dr. Mac Memorial Golf Tournament each September. In 2004, the tournament's name was changed in honor of the late Dr. James McPherson, who served as the Predators' dentist from 1998-2004. The 2010 tournament, which took place on September 14, raised over $50,000 for the Nashville Predators Foundation.

UNMASKED BALL

In past years, Hockey Tonk, Hollywood, Hawaiian Luau and Disco Ball and have been themes of the Unmasked Ball, a black-tie affair featuring Predators players, coaching staff and management. The Unmasked Ball, scheduled for February 10, 2011, features a silent auction and has raised more than $1 million since its inception in 1998.

The 2010 Hockey Tonk Gala

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

The Predators Foundation held their inaugural Wine Festival & Tasting in 2006. The 2010 event consisted of a wine tasting on the floor of Bridgestone Arena and featured samples from more than 200 wines, Budweiser beer and Patrón spirits tasting. Levy Restaurants provided heavy hors d'oeuvres. The evening included Predators personnel, an extensive silent auction and photo opportunities with Predators mascot GNASH.

This event raises more than $50,000 annually. The 2010 event also featured a VIP Dinner & Tasting hosted by Jerry Comfort of Stags' Leap Winery in the Patron Platinum Club that included a five-course wine dinner featuring Stags' Leap wines.

DEX SCORE & WIN

Last season the Nashville Predators Foundation and DEX Imaging and Mailing teamed up to raise more than $30,000 through the DEX Score and Win program. Every time a Predator scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win in 2009-10, DEX made a donation to the Predators Foundation that was distributed to 11 Middle Tennessee charities. For every goal scored by a forward or a win by a goaltender, DEX contributed $100. The contribution was $150 for goals scored by a defenseman and there was a $200 bonus for hat tricks and shutouts.

The 2009-10 campaign marked the fifth season of the DEX Score and Win Program. The program was launched midway through the 2005-06 season and brought in $18,750 that year. The program has now combined for more than $145,000 over the past five seasons.

GAME NIGHT/ONLINE SILENT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts a silent auction table at each Predators home game behind section 120 on the main concourse. Also at the auction table, at various games throughout the season, the Predators Foundation sells autographed pucks as part of a fundraiser called Holiday Mystery Puck. For a $25 donation to the Foundation, fans will have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player. Additionally, Predators Foundation online auctions are hosted throughout the season on nhl.com.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

BIRTHDAY AND SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT MEGATRON MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Megatron during Predators home games. In-game center-hung scoreboard rates are $50 for a birthday announcement and $100 for an engagement announcement (based on game availability). To schedule, please visit nashvillepredators.com/scoreboard or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

ZAMBONI RIDES/PRE-GAME VISIT TO THE PENALTY BOX

For a $100 donation to the Nashville Predators Foundation, Predators fans can ride the Zamboni or have the opportunity to sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the Nashville Predators' pregame skate. To schedule, please visit nashvillepredators.com/zamboni ride or nashvillepredators.com/penaltybox, or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's community relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses in raising money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS FOUNDATION GRANT RECIPIENTS

In 2009-10, the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed a record 115 grants totaling more than $300,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations. Each year, the Predators Foundation Board selects four Feature Charities. These organizations receive exclusive opportunities throughout the season including in-arena drives, Predators participation in events, tickets to home games, recognition in team publications as well as other unique opportunities. The 2010-11 Feature Charities are Best Buddies, Girls on the Run, Monroe Harding and Siloam Family Health Center.

GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have 501(c)3 status to apply. To request application information please email rward@nashvillepredators.com.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each year the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. Applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee and excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game.

For more information, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2321 or visit nashvillepredators.com/community.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard, and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season - from ownership, players, management and staff.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2009-10 initiatives included Second Harvest Food Bank collections, the Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive, Salvation Army Kettle Drive, monthly hospital visits, a Thanksgiving Turkey giveaway, a holiday party for kids, the Teacher of the Month Program and the NHL's league-wide Hockey Fights Cancer awareness month (October).

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER

Each October the Nashville Predators host a Hockey Fights Cancer Night and an additional benefit night later in the season. These We Care for Kids nights, benefitting Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, include 25 percent of every single-game ticket sold and 100 percent of the silent-auction proceeds donated back to the Children's Hospital. Donations are also collected at all Bridgestone Arena entrances before the games and throughout the building during the games. Patients from Children's Hospital are invited to sit in Predators forward J.P. Dumont's suite, ride on the Zamboni, take part in a postgame meet-and-greet with players, and participate in the Zebra's Care, a charitable organization run by the NHL Official's Association.

In July 2010, the Nashville Predators presented a check for $125,000 to Children's Hospital. Eighty percent of the donation will be used toward an endowed pediatric cancer research fund – which will always be active and to which others may donate – with the remaining $25,000 supporting a number of programs including Books From Birth and the Vanderbilt Children's Health Improvement and Prevention (VCHIP) Program. To donate to the fund please visit nashvilepredators.com/fightcancer.

STICK TO READING = SUCCEEDING

Stick to Reading = Succeeding is a reading program that encourages young students to read. Each month Predators players and mascot GNASH visit local schools, read books to kids and encourage students to make reading a life-long habit.

TEACHER OF THE MONTH

The Teacher of the Month program recognizes teachers in the greater Nashville area for their accomplishments in the classroom. The Predators select teachers based upon the principal's portrayal of how the teacher has impacted students, school faculty and others around them. The Predators target a different county each month and distribute applications to that district's principals. Each month, the winning teacher receives a surprise visit from GNASH, a certificate, tickets to a Predators game and recognition on the Predators website. For more information, please contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

PENCIL PARTNER PROGRAM

The Pencil Partner Program partners the Nashville Predators with Hume-Fogg High School and Lockeland Design Center Elementary School to provide unique opportunities to local youth. High school students have the opportunity to be a sportswriter for a day, where they watch a game from the press box, attend the postgame press conference with Head Coach Barry Trotz and write a follow-up game story for Predators website. Other opportunities in the program include GNASH welcoming students to school on the first day after summer vacation, complimentary tickets, donated autographed memorabilia, participation in hockey clinics and the opportunity for students to volunteer at Predators' fundraising events.

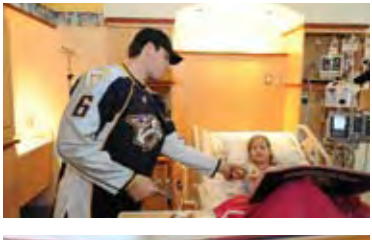
FRIDAY FUNDAY

Throughout the season Predators players' wives, girlfriends and GNASH participate in the Friday FunDay program by visiting local elementary schools on a Friday to read books to the students and talk about the importance of education. Schools receive a donation of books and school supplies from the Nashville Predators.

PLAYERS CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management and GNASH made more than 250 appearances in Middle Tennessee during the 2009-10 season. Over the years, players have donated game tickets and have visited several non-profit organizations throughout the Nashville community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives including:

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Middle Tennessee, Book' em, Down Syndrome Association of Middle Tennessee, Men of Valor, Nashville Youth Hockey League, Nations Ministry Center, Next Door, Inc., Our Kids, STARS (Students Taking A Right Stand) and YMCA of Middle Tennessee: Joe C. Davis Outdoor Center-Camp Widjiwagan



COACH TROTZ AND MY FRIEND'S HOUSE

Head Coach Barry Trotz and his wife Kim have provided a $500 donation to My Friend's House for every Predators home win since the start of the 1999-2000 season. Together, they have donated more than $150,000.

YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of hockey at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches' clinics, players' clinics, ice time at Bridgestone Arena and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators' home games.

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's league-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing this free athletic and educational program.

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, pucks, nets and protective goalie equipment, including start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, as well as follow-up with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently 40 youth facilities that participate in the Street Pride program including Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Middle Tennessee, Metro Parks and Recreation, Williamson County Parks and Recreation, and the YMCA of Middle Tennessee. This free, grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a kid needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

GET OUT AND LEARN!

The G.O.A.L! program introduces the game of hockey to aspiring future Predators, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free introductory program is designed for kids 8-and-under with no prior experience. G.O.A.L! is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family. The Predators are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in the fall of 2006, more than 1,200 kids have graduated from G.O.A.L!

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

"Taking Hockey to the Streets" is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players, and appearances by a player, coach or GNASH.

HOT SHOTS

Hot Shots is a free, traveling, interactive hockey experience that aims to educate elementary and middle school students on basic hockey skills and the Predators. During the school year, Hot Shots visits over 25 schools, reaching more than 3,500 students. The Predators provide all necessary equipment and instruction at no cost.

The program continues into the summer as the Hot Shots Summerfest Tour travels to youth camps, educating young fans on the sport of hockey.

YOUTH & AMATEUR HOCKEY

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville which is open to boys and girls ages 8-14. Youth attending Hockey School are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, as well as intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. Hockey School emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from the Predators scouting and coaching staffs.

The Predators also host the "Little Preds" Hockey School, an evening camp, during the summer at A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin. The school is offered to children ages 4-7.

COACHES CORNER

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Through partnerships with flexxCOACH – an online coaching tool – and USA Hockey, the Predators are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge, and in turn, the team's on-ice performance.

LOCAL HOCKEY RECOGNITION

Each month during the season, the Nashville Predators recognize an ice or inline player and a volunteer in the Nashville area who demonstrate character skills that make youth hockey a better experience for all involved. During the season, the Youth Hockey Player of the Month and Youth Hockey Volunteer of the Month are recognized at a Predators home game. In addition to individual recognition, the Predators recognize teams that make up the Tennessee amateur and youth hockey scene through the Tennessee Hockey Team Spotlight feature at nashvillepredators.com.

NASHVILLE JR. PREDATORS

During the 2009-10 season, the Nashville Predators teamed up with the Greater Nashville Minor Hockey Association to form the NHL club's first minor hockey affiliate, the Nashville Jr. Predators. This youth hockey "AA" travel program fields Squirt through Midget teams (age divisions 8-18) in the greater Nashville area. Visit nashvillejrpredators.com for more information.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at Bridgestone Arena. Since the inaugural tournament, eight teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Cup.

BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice level offered as a silent auction item during Predators home games. Youth hockey players get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the starting lineup, they skate to the blue line, then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

JERSEY SPONSORSHIP

As an ongoing partnership, the Nashville Predators partner with local ice hockey leagues as their official jersey provider. More than 700 youth hockey players on 48 teams at Centennial Sportsplex in Nashville and A-Game Sportsplex in Franklin wear the Predators logo. When the sponsorship started during the 2009-10 season, it marked the first time in club history that the Predator logo was worn by area hockey associations, strengthening the relationship between the youth hockey community and the NHL Club.

SKATE AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Since the Predators inaugural season in 1998-99, thousands of youth hockey players have had the opportunity to skate on the same surface as NHL players. As a ticket fundraiser program, "Mites on Ice" is offered to hockey teams ages 9-and-under for the chance to skate in front of 17,000-plus fans during intermissions at select Predator home games. Adult and youth hockey teams can also skate on the same as ice as the pros through the "Play Where the Preds Play" program." Teams have the opportunity play an exhibition game at Bridgestone Arena before or after a Nashville home game to raise money for their team. In 2008, the team announced a joint venture with the Greater Nashville Area Scholastic Hockey League (GNASH) that will see area high school teams play at Bridgestone Arena as the featured High School Game of the Week.

For more information on these programs, please visit nashvillepredators.com/youthhockey or contact the Predators Amateur and Youth Hockey Department at (615) 770-2372.

ADMIRALS COACHING STAFF

LANE LAMBERT HEAD COACH

Lane Lambert enters his fourth season as head coach of the Admirals, and fifth season with the organization in 2010-11. Lambert, the 17th coach in Admirals history, guided Milwaukee to the Calder Cup Playoffs in each of his first three seasons at the helm, posting a combined 134-81-25 record. The Admirals have also posted 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points all three seasons under Lambert, making them the first team in AHL history to reach the marks in seven consecutive campaigns. In his second season behind the bench in 2008-09, Lambert led a young squad to 49-22-9 record, winning the West Division while tying for the most points (107) in the AHL. The win total tied a club record since the team joined the AHL for the 2001-02 campaign.

For the third consecutive campaign, the Ads succeeded behind Lambert's attention to play in the defensive zone. The team finished in the Top 10 in goals allowed again in 2009-10, and since Lambert took over behind the Admiral bench prior to the 2007-08 season, Milwaukee has given up the third-fewest goals in the AHL (627) behind only Manitoba (617) and Hamilton (618). Similar to 2007-08 and 2008-09, the Admirals caught fire after about six weeks of playing Lambert's system, posting a 20-8-3 record from Nov. 20-Jan. 24.

Prior to joining the Admirals as an assistant coach in 2006-07, the Melfort, Saskatchewan native served as an assistant for the Bridgeport Sound Tigers, the New York Islanders' AHL affiliate, in 2005-06 where he helped to lead the Sound Tigers to a 38-33-9 record and a Calder Cup playoff berth.

Prior to his position in Bridgeport, Lambert was the head coach of the Prince George Cougars of the Western Hockey League for two seasons from 2003-05. In 2002-03 he was an assistant for the Moose Jaw Warriors (WHL), helping the team to a 36-22-11-3 record and a second-place finish in the East Division.

Lambert finished an 18-year playing career with the Houston Aeros in 2000-01. Originally, the Detroit Red Wings' second selection, 25th overall (second round), in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft, Lambert finished his NHL career with 125 points (58g-67a) and 521 penalty minutes in 283 games with Detroit, the New York Rangers and Quebec from 1983-89. Lambert enjoyed his most successful NHL campaign with the Nordiques in 1987-88, recording career-highs in points (41) and assists (28) in 61 contests.

The 45-year old Lambert also gained significant playing experience in both the American and International Hockey Leagues. He posted 107 points (44g-63a) in 115 games during three seasons in the AHL with Adirondack, Halifax and New Haven and notched 131 points (69a-62a) in 302 contests during five seasons with Cleveland and Houston of the IHL.

Lambert won a pair of championships as a player. The first was an AHL Calder Cup title with Adirondack in 1986. He also helped the Houston Aeros claim the IHL's Turner Cup championship in 1999.

Lambert and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Taylor and Samantha.

IAN HERBERS ASSISTANT COACH

Ian Herbers enters his second season as assistant coach of the Milwaukee Admirals in 2010-11 after helping the Ads to their seventh consecutive 40 win/90-plus point season in 2009-10. The Jasper, Alta., native's duties with the club include running the defense corps on the bench and pre-scouting opponents.

Prior to joining Milwaukee prior to last season, Herbers spent two seasons as head coach of the ECHL's Johnstown Chiefs. With Herbers at the helm, Johnstown posted a 73-60-11 record from 2007-09, which included a Kelly Cup playoff berth in 2008. Prior to his time with the Chiefs, Herbers spent three seasons with the Saginaw Spirit of the Ontario Hockey League – two as an associate head coach (2005-07) and one as an assistant (2004-05). The Spirit advanced to the OHL Playoffs in each of Herbers' final two seasons with the club, compiling an 80-51-5 record in that span. He started his coaching career as an assistant with the American Hockey League's San Antonio Rampage in 2003-04.

The 43-year-old Herbers ended his 12-season professional career in 2003-04. A 10th-round selection (190th overall) of the Buffalo Sabres in the 1987 Entry Draft, he played 65 career National Hockey League games with the Edmonton Oilers (1993-94), Tampa Bay Lightning (1999-2000) and the New York Islanders (1999-2000), totaling five assists and 79 penalty minutes. He also won a pair of league titles with the AHL's Cape Breton Oilers in 1993 and the International Hockey League's Detroit Vipers in 1997.

Herbers played 586 games in parts of 10 seasons in the AHL and IHL with the Oilers, Vipers and Cleveland Lumberjacks from 1992-2001, amassing 147 points (40g-107a) and 1,113 penalty minutes. He also played professionally in the United Kingdom for two seasons prior to finishing his playing career with the Flint Generals of the United Hockey League.

Herbers played four seasons at the University of Alberta from 1988-92, winning three CWUAA titles and captaining the Golden Bears to a University Cup title as Canadian Interuniversity Sport national champions as a senior.

ACQUIRED
Feb. 16, 2004 – Acquired by Nashville from Chicago for a second-round selection in the 2004 Entry Draft (Ryan Garlock) and a second-round selection in the 2005 Entry Draft (Michael Blunden).

2009-10: Led the team in assists (34) and tied for the team lead in points (51)… One of three players to dress for all 82 of the team's games, tying a career high… Ranked second on the team in game-winning goals (4)… Nashville went 11-1-2 in the 14 games where he registered a goal, and the team has posted a 157-89-27 (.623) all-time record with him in the lineup… Posted 17 points (5g-12a) in Nashville's 20 home games after the calendar turned to 2010… Posted a team-best +9 plus/minus rating on home ice… Notched his 400th career assist on March 21 at St. Louis… Scored his 250th career goal on Feb. 4 vs. Colorado… Set a franchise record with his fourth hat trick as a Predator on Dec. 14 at Columbus, three years to the day after his sixth career three-goal game… Played in his 800th career game on Dec. 19 at Calgary… Put a career-high 11 shots on net on Nov. 14 vs. Montreal, tied for the second-highest total in franchise history. PLAYOFFS: Appeared in all six of the team's postseason contests, ranking second in assists (3)… Posted his first multi-point playoff performance since April 26, 1999 in Game Three (2a).

2008-09: Won the 2009 Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy, given "to the player who best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey," becoming the first player in franchise history to win an NHL award… Returned to action on Jan. 10, 2009 vs. Chicago after missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff contests due to a back injury. The layoff spanned 687 days, making him just the third player in the post-World War II era to miss more than 600 days due to injury, then return to action (joining Jim Peplinski, Calgary and Mario Lemieux, Pittsburgh)… Nashville went 22-14-5 with him in the lineup and 18-20-3 without him… Notched 27 points (11g-16a) in the final 25 games of the season… Posted his 600th career NHL point with an assist on March 28 vs. Los Angeles, then scored the overtime game winner later that night… Registered his first point in 154 games in the second contest of his return – Jan. 13, 2009 at Toronto, and netted his first goal in two years on Feb. 18, 2009 at Detroit.

2007-08: Missed the entire season due to a back injury.

2006-07: Finished fourth on the team in scoring (22g-38a-60pts) despite playing in just 57 games… Tied for third on the team in game-winning goals (4) and finished 10th in the NHL in shooting percentage (18.0%)… Led the team in shorthanded goals (3) and ranked fourth on the team in power-play points (6g-17a-23pts)… Posted 17 multi-point games, including six three-point contests… Scored the game-winning goal (3g-2a-5pts) in three straight games from Jan. 5-9… Notched his sixth career hat trick in a 6-0 win vs. Ottawa on Dec. 14. It was the franchise's second natural hat trick and set a team record for the fastest three goals by an individual (5:56)… Missed 24 games, including the final 19 games of the season, due to injury.

2005-06: Tied for the team lead with 31 goals and ranked second on the club in scoring (31g-37a-68pts)… Tied for third on the club in assists (37) and tied for second in game-winning goals (5)… Finished second on the club with a career-high 13 power-play goals and third on the team with 34 power-play points (13g-21a)… Posted four straight multi-point games (2g-7a-9pts) from March 7-14… Registered his 500th career point and 300th assist at Calgary on March 7… Scored his fourth shorthanded goal of the season at Detroit on Jan. 24, tying him for the franchise record. The goal also marked the 200th of his career… Scored his 20th and 21st goal of the season vs. the N.Y. Islanders on Jan. 10, reaching the 20-goal mark in a season faster than any other player in franchise history (38 games)… Named the NHL Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 17 (4g-3a-7pts in three Nashville victories)… Missed 13 games due to injury. PLAYOFFS: Posted two assists in five playoff games.

2003-04: Notched a career-high with 49 assists, tying for ninth in the NHL… Also registered career-highs in shots (218) and average ice time (20:55)… Became the first Predator to record two four-point games in one season… Named NHL Offensive Player of the Week on Feb. 23 (3gp, 5g-5a-10pts). Tied a franchise record with 10 points in three consecutive games and became the

AUSTIN WATSON (AUZ-tihn WAWT-suhn)

(Nashville's first choice, 18th overall (first round), in the 2010 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Attended the USA Hockey Junior Evaluation Camp in July/August 2010… Peterborough's nominee for the 2010 Red Tilson Award as the OHL's Most Valuable Player… Traded from Windsor to Peterborough on Jan. 10, 2010… Missed five weeks due to a broken ankle after blocking a shot while playing in the 2010 CHL Home Hardware Top Prospects Game. Closed out the season with 18 points (7g-11a) in the final seven games of the regular season upon returning from injury… Named CHL Player of the Week for the week of March 7 after recording nine points (5g-4a) in three games for the previous week… Notched six points (1g-5a) in the Petes' 2009-10 regular-season finale, a 10-3 victory over Oshawa on March 13… Rated 14th among North American Skaters in Central Scouting Services' final rankings… Participated in the 2010 USA Hockey National Junior Evaluation Camp… Helped the United States win gold at the 2010 U-18 World Championships, posting three points (1g-2a) and 33 penalty minutes (tied for second in the tournament) in seven games… Helped Windsor win both the 2009 Robertson Cup as OHL Champion and 2009 Memorial Cup… Named the Spitfires 2009 Hiram Walker and Sons Rookie of the Year… Posted points in each of his first four OHL games (2g-4a)… A graduate of the Detroit Compuware program which has produced the likes of Eric Lindros, Pat LaFontaine, Brian Rolston, Mike Modano and David Legwand… The oldest of 10 children.

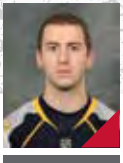
	Peterborough	OHL	10	9	11	20	8	4	2	0	2	2

SCOUTING REPORT: A power forward who plays a high-energy two-way game… An excellent competitor who is aggressive on the forecheck and strong on the puck… A good penalty killer and shot blocker… Exhibits a great net-front presence on the power-play and has a very good stick, allowing him to create goals and scoring chances off redirections and tips… Protects the puck very well all over the ice.

QUOTEBOOK: "Austin's strengths are his size and his compete level. He's a very competitive player who scores, kills penalties, blocks shots. He has no real weaknesses in his game. He's got a well-rounded skill set that will complement our group moving forward. He has the potential to put up significant points as well. He got our attention when he played in Windsor. Their team was very deep, so he didn't have a lot of opportunities in scoring situations, but you could see it was there. Certainly his production at the end of the year with Peterborough solidified our opinion of that – that he can be a scorer. Moving forward we're hoping he can continue to grow that part of his game." – Predators North American Amateur Scout Jason Bukala



DEFENSE

TAYLOR ARONSON (TAY-luhr AIHR-uhn-suhn)

Shoots right. • 6-0, 196 lbs. • Born, Placentia, Calif., December 30, 1991.
(Nashville's second choice, 78th overall (third round), in the 2010 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Ranked sixth among WHL rookie defensemen in points (5g-25a) in 2009-10… Also tied for fourth among first-year blueliners in assists, and tied for fifth in goals… Amassed nine points (2g-7a) in 11 games during the 2010 WHL Playoffs, good for seventh among League rookies despite the Hawks being eliminated in the second round… The 90th-rated North American Skater by Central Scouting Services… A first-round pick of the USHL's Tri-City Storm, but opted to go to the WHL… Spent the 2008-09 season with the L.A. Junior Kings.

2009-10	Portland	WHL	71	5	25	30	65	11	2	7	9	13

SCOUTING REPORT: A mobile, puck-moving defenseman who models his game after Brian Rafalski… Has great vision and is very cool, very calm with the puck… Improved immensely during his first major junior season… Has big-time natural talent and lots of upside.

QUOTEBOOK: "Taylor has great vision. He's a good two-way player, he's a guy who offensively and defensively we count on in all situations, so he plays on the power play, plays on the penalty kill, plays in late game situations, and he's a guy who I think just has great reads and great instincts on the ice, especially for a player who hasn't played defense for a long time." – North American Amateur Scout Rick Knickle

PATRICK CEHLIN (PAT-rihk SAY-lihn)

Shoots right. • 5-11, 170 lbs. • Born, Huddinge, Sweden, July 27, 1991.
(Nashville's third choice, 126th overall (fifth round), in the 2010 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Spent the majority of the 2009-10 season with Djurgarden's Elitserien team, helping them reach the League finals and earn a silver medal… Ranked No. 14 among European skaters in Central Scouting's final rankings… Ranked ninth in the Swedish Junior League in penalty minutes in 2008-09 (110)… Finished the 2008-09 season second on the Djurgarden junior team in both points and assists (10g-25a-35pts), while ranking third in goals… Tied for first in the tournament in penalty minutes (37) while representing Sweden at the 2009 U-18 World Championships… Posted four points (2g-2a) in six games during the U-18 Worlds tournament… Split the 2007-08 campaign between Djurgarden's junior and U-18 teams… Helped the U-18 team win the 2008 second division title, posting five assists in eight playoff contests… Helped Team Stockholm finish second in the 2007 TV-Pucken tournament, a famous U-17 national championship in Sweden consisting of teams from 24 districts. Notched seven points (2g-5a) in eight games during the tourney… Has played four seasons in the Djurgarden system, the same organization that produced current Predator Patric Hornqvist.

	Djurgardens	Sweden	54	5	6	11	10	16	0	2	2	2

SCOUTING REPORT: Is an excellent skater who accelerates well and has good top speed… Never hesitates to go into the hard areas… An offensive-minded player with good technical skills, release and creativity… Passes the puck well, but can also score.

QUOTEBOOK: "He is a high-energy guy, a fierce competitor, and he goes into the hard areas. I have a lot of comparisons to Patric Hornqvist in the way he approaches a game. He is not the biggest guy, but he is strong on the puck. He's one of those players who is in attack mode all the time." – Predators European Scout Lucas Bergman

ANTHONY BITETTO (AN-thu-nee biht-EHT-oh)

Shoots left. • 6-1, 210 lbs. • Born, Oceanside, N.Y., July 15, 1990.
(Nashville's fourth choice, 168th overall (sixth round), in the 2010 Entry Draft).

CAREER NOTES: Expected to play his freshman season at Northeastern University (Hockey East) in 2010-11… A 2009-10 All-USHL Second Team selection in his first full season with the Indiana Ice… Ranked fourth among United States Hockey League defensemen in points, third in assists and sixth at the position in goals (11g-29a-40pts) in 2009-10… Tied for first among USHL blueliners in game-winning goals, ranked second in shooting percentage (13.6%) and tied for sixth at the position in power-play goals (6) in 2009-10… Led the 2009-10 Ice in penalty minutes (99), and paced team d-men in plus/minus rating (+11)… Named USHL Defensive Player of the Week twice in two weeks in February 2010 after posting 23 points (7g-16a) in a 12-game span, which included two five-point games… Helped Indiana win the 2009 Clark Cup, dressing for all 13 of the club's postseason contests… Started the 2008-09 season as captain of Apple Core (EJHL), before joining the Ice in early January… Played 13 years in the Apple Core (N.Y.) development system that has also produced current NHLers Rob Scuderi, Douglas Murray, Mark Eaton and Eric Nystrom.

SCOUTING REPORT: An energy player and physical presence who is relentless on both the forecheck and backcheck… Brings a determined hard-nosed approach to the rink, and is also a workout warrior… Will sacrifice his body to make a play and always finishes his checks… Powerful skater who drives hard to the net… Shoots hard and fast… Surprisingly effective offensively when given the opportunity.

QUOTEBOOK: "Elsner is a hard-hitting forward, who does some things on the ice like Jordin Tootoo –if you do not keep your head up, you are going to pay the price. He likes to go after you, he likes to play physical and he likes to use his body. He will drive to the net, shoot from anywhere and stay in front of the crease." – Predators European Scout Martin Bakula

CENTER

JOONAS RASK (YOH-nuhs RASK)

Shoots right. • 5-10, 176 lbs. • Born, Savonlinna, Finland, March 24, 1990.

SCOUTING REPORT: Hard worker that makes things difficult for the opposing team… An incredibly reliable player who plays a sound two-way game… Always does all the little things to help his team win… Incredible energy and intensity on the penalty kill… Skating is continually improving… He's got soft hands and uses his hockey sense effectively to find open space… Wins his fair share of face-offs… Displays good understanding of the game.

QUOTEBOOK: "We have described him as a Vernon Fiddler-type of player. He's a good all-around player, who is full of heart, full of character, and has an extreme passion for the game." – Predators European Scout Janne Kekalainen

PREDATORS IN ELITE CLASS WITH FIVE STRAIGHT 40-WIN/23 HOME WIN SEASONS

The Predators finished the 2009-10 season with a 47-29-6 record (100 points), the third-best mark in franchise history. The victory total vaulted Nashville into an elite class of just five teams who have reached the 40-win mark in five consecutive seasons (San Jose, New Jersey, Calgary, and Detroit are the others). In the five NHL seasons since 2005-06, the Predators have amassed 228 victories, the fifth-most in the League, and third-most in the Western Conference. Additionally, the club has 131 home victories since the start of the 2005-06 campaign, tied for the third-most in that span behind only Detroit (136) and New Jersey (132). The Predators are one of just four teams (with Detroit, New Jersey and Minnesota) to have at least 23 home victories in each of the last five campaigns.

Going back one more season to 2003-04, Nashville is one of just four Western Conference teams, and one of eight teams overall, to make the playoffs at least five times.

ROAD WARRIORS

Nashville finished with a 23-15-3 (49 points) mark on the road this season, tying the franchise record for road victories and points previously attained during the 2006-07 season. Four times in 2009-10 the Preds reeled off at least four straight wins away from Bridgestone Arena, something that had only been done three times total in the franchise's first 10 seasons. Twice the team put together five-game road winning streaks (March 12-April 3 and Dec. 29-Jan. 15) and a four-game winning streak Dec. 4-19 was part of a 6-0-1 run from Nov. 12-Dec. 19. That tied the club mark for consecutive away games with a point. Nashville's 23 wins was tied for the League's fourth-highest total in 2009-10, and it was one of just five teams (along with Washington, San Jose, Chicago and Los Angeles) to gross at least 23 wins both at home and on the road.

The Predators road record was made possible by their 92 even-strength goals – the second-most road goals in the League – and overall goal total which was fifth highest (115).

NASHVILLE CLUTCH IN EXTRA TIME

The Predators posted a 14-6 record in their 20 games that required overtime or a shootout in 2009-10, setting a franchise record for extra-session wins in a season. Seven of the club's final 13 games of the regular season required extra time, with Nashville posting a 6-1 record in those games. Nashville's .700 winning percentage was good for second in the NHL. The Predators posted a 6-2 record in games determined in the five-minute overtime period, and an 8-4 mark in shootouts. Five players accounted for the six overtime goals, with David Legwand – the franchise's all-time leader in overtime points (7g-5a) – scoring twice. Three of the six goals came in the first minute of sudden death. Nashville netminders Dan Ellis and Pekka Rinne led the charge in shootouts, combining to post a .764 save percentage, fourth-best in the League. Ellis posted a .800 save percentage in three appearances, good for fifth in the NHL. Rinne, meanwhile, finished strong, stopping 18 of the last 20 attempts he faced to finish with a .756 save percentage. He was one of only two goalies to face at least 25 shootout attempts and post a save percentage greater than .750. An NHL-high 41 of those attempts came on Bridgestone Arena Ice, where he posted a .780 save percentage, fourth-best among goalies facing at least 15 attempts. Among shooters, Martin Erat led the way, going 5-for-11 – tied for eighth-best (45.4 percent) among shooters taking at least 10 attempts – with three shootout-deciding markers, tied for fourth-best in the NHL.

PREDATORS SET FRANCHISE RECORD FOR WINS IN A MONTH

With an 11-5-1 record in March 2010, the Predators set a franchise record for wins and points in a single month. The previous mark was 10 wins attained four times (January 2004, November 2006, January 2007 and February 2009), and 22 points set with a 10-4-2-0 record in January 2004. Nashville's banner March included a six-game winning streak from the 12th to the 21st and a 4-1 mark in overtime, which five of the last nine games of the month required. It was also just the second time in franchise history the Predators played as many as 17 games in a single month – they went 6-8-3-0 in January 2002, another Olympic year. Additionally, the Preds went 9-0-1 in one-goal games during the month.

TROTZ HITS SIXTH ON PAIR OF ALL-TIME LISTS

Predators head coach Barry Trotz reached a couple of milestones as his 11th season behind the Nashville bench came to a close. On April 3 at Detroit, he recorded his 900th game coached – all behind Nashville's bench – becoming just the sixth coach in NHL history to reach the mark with a single team. Al Arbour (1,499 with N.Y.

Islanders) ranks first on the games coached with a single team list, while Billy Reay (1,012 with Chicago), Lindy Ruff (979 with Buffalo), Jack Adams (964 with Detroit) and Toe Blake (914 with Montreal) round out the top five. With a victory over the Red Wings that afternoon, the Dauphin, Man., native, tied Scotty Bowman's 410 wins with Detroit for sixth on the wins with a single team list. He moved into sole possession of sixth place with a win over St. Louis in the season finale. Arbour's 739 wins with the Islanders tops that list, followed by Ruff (481), Glen Sather (464 with Edmonton), Dick Irvin (431 with Montreal) and Bowman's 419 wins with Montreal.

OTHER TEAM NOTABLES

- The Predators went 14-6-1 (29 points) after the 2010 Olympic break, the League's fourth-best record, and third-highest point total. Only Detroit (16-3-2), Washington (13-2-5) and Phoenix (13-4-2) posted better records after March 1.
- The Predators went 42-19-6 in games decided by two goals or less – the most wins in the NHL in that situation. Their 28-9-6 mark in one-goal games ranked second. Starting with a 2-1 victory over the New York Rangers on Feb. 10, the Predators posted a 14-0-1 record in one-goal games through the end of the season.
- Nashville tied with Phoenix for the NHL lead when leading after one period (23-1-0), but also had the League's top record when trailing after 20 minutes (10-9-2).
- Nashville's 28-6-1 record when scoring the first goal of the game ranked second in the League in 2009-10. It also tied for second in wins when giving up the first goal of the game (19).
- The Predators averaged the fewest penalty minutes per game (8.7), a franchise record, and were shorthanded the second-fewest times (258), also a franchise record. Excluding the shortened 1994-95 season, it was the fewest penalty minutes since the 1976-77 Pittsburgh Penguins (669). Nashville went down a man on home ice a League-low 113 times.

HORNQVIST BREAKS OUT IN 2009-10

Second-year forward Patric Hornqvist became the fourth player in franchise history – and first Predators draft pick – to score 30 goals for the franchise this season, one season after scoring just twice in 28 games as a rookie. His 28-goal increase from his rookie season in 2008-09 made him just the second player in the last nine seasons dating back to 2000-01 to experience such an increase when playing at least 20 games the season prior (Milan Hejduk, plus-29 in 2002-03). While his 30 goals tied him for 19th in the NHL, his eight game-winning goals not only tied the franchise record, but also tied for second in the League 2009-10. The Swedish Olympian scored one-third (10) of his goals on the power-play, all of which came after Dec. 1, which tied for fourth in the NHL in that span. Additionally, Hornqvist had the fewest NHL games experience (108) and the lowest average ice time (15:41) among the NHL's Top 20 goal scorers. He also set a franchise record in shots on goal with 275, a total that ranked 14th-highest this season.

Since the implementation of the modern amateur entry draft in 1969, eight of 41 players selected with the final pick of the draft have gone on to play at least one NHL game. Of those eight, just three – Hornqvist (230th overall in 2005), Kim Johnsson (286th in 1994) and Andy Brickley (210th in 1980) – have appeared in at least 100 games and posted 50 points.

RINNE'S SEASON HIGHLIGHTED BY A STELLAR MARCH

Sophomore netminder Pekka Rinne compiled a 32-16-5 record, and tied his own franchise record with seven shutouts in 2009-10, becoming just the second goaltender in franchise history to post a 30-win season, in addition to moving into second on the club's all-time shutout list with 14. While the single season win total ranks third behind Tomas Vokoun's marks of 36 in 2005-06 and 34 in 2003-04, Rinne's 61 wins over the past two seasons is the 11th-most by an NHL goaltender. The Kempele, Finland native's season shutout total tied for third in the League, while all 14 of his whitewashes have come since Dec. 1, 2008 – the most in the NHL since that date.

PEKKA RINNE

Rinne's numbers were boosted in-large part to his play in the month of March, which rivaled any month-long individual performance in franchise history. The 6-5, 207-pounder led the NHL in shutouts during the month with four, and ranked second among NHL netminders in wins, posting a 9-3-1 record. Additionally, Rinne's 1.81 goals-against average was first among goalies making at least five starts, while his .934 save percentage was second. He was named the NHL's First Star of the Week on March 22, and garnered Third Star of the Week honors on March 15.

He started a stretch of four shutouts in a nine-game span with a 31-save effort at Anaheim on March 12. Six days later he posted whitewashes in back-to-back games, blanking Minnesota in a 5-0 win on March 18 (17 saves), and Columbus in a 1-0 overtime victory on March 20 (33 saves) as part of a 149:04 shutout streak, the second-longest in franchise history. He stopped all 38 shots he faced against Detroit on March 27 in a 1-0 shootout loss, the 12th time a Rinne shutout has ended in a 1-0 or 2-0 score.

WEBER SCORES GOALS

A season after tying for the fourth-highest goal total by a defenseman in the past 10 seasons (23 in 2008-09), Shea Weber continued to light the lamp for the Predators in 2009-10, tying for second among NHL blueliners in goals with 16 goals. Since the start of the 2006-07 season, the Sicamous, B.C., native has scored 62 times, second-most in that span behind only Washington's Mike Green (70). The 6-4, 234-pounder scored an NHL defenseman-high 12 of his goals on the road. He also tied for fourth at the position in power-play markers (7), and tied for fifth in game-winning goals (3).

MR. DURABLE

For the second consecutive season, and for the third time in the last four campaigns, defenseman Ryan Suter suited up for all 82 of Nashville's games, extending his games played streak to 203 dating back to Jan. 13, 2008. The Madison, Wis., native has played 20-or-more minutes in all but two games over the past two seasons, and ranked 13th in the League this season in total minutes played (1,966:02). After setting the franchise record for average ice time a season ago (24:15), Suter logged 23:58 per game in 2009-10, third-highest in Predators history.

SHEA WEBER & RYAN SUTER

WEBER STRIKES OLYMPIC GOLD, EARNS ALL-STAR NOD, SUTER CLAIMS SILVER

The Nashville Predators were well represented at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics, led by defenseman Shea Weber, who claimed a gold medal thanks to Canada's 3-2 overtime victory over the United States in the Gold Medal Game. Weber, drafted 49th overall (second round) by Nashville in 2003, was one of just two defensemen (along with United States/Detroit blueliner Brian Rafalski) to be named to the Olympic All-Star Team after he notched a point in six of his nation's seven tournament games (2g-4a) while ranking second on the team in average ice time (20:37). The Sicamous, B.C., native's point total tied for second among all defensemen in the competition, and he was one of just four d-men to register multiple goals in the tourney. This was the 6-4, 234-pounder's third gold medal for Team Canada – he was part of championship-winning teams at the 2005 World Junior Championships and 2007 World Championships, in addition to earning silver at the 2009 World Championships.

Weber's defensive partner, Ryan Suter, earned a silver medal as part of the United States' Olympic entry, duplicating the finish of his uncle Gary at the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics. The Madison, Wis., native led Team USA in average ice time for the tournament (22:50), highlighted by a game-high 31:31 played in the Gold Medal Game – he played 11:38 in the third period and 4:12 of 7:40 in sudden-death overtime. Drafted seventh overall by the Predators in 2003, Suter tied for the tournament lead in plus/minus rating (+9) with Canada's Jonathan Toews, and amassed four assists in America's six games.

NASHVILLE'S OTHER OLYMPIANS

Patric Hornqvist made his first career Olympic appearance representing Sweden, and scored a goal while playing in all four of the nation's games. The tally – notched in the quarterfinals against Slovakia – was set up by former Predator Peter Forsberg… Martin Erat donned a Czech Republic sweater at the Olympics for the second straight time in Vancouver. He played all five of his nation's games, registering one assist and a plus-1 rating while averaging 16:03 of ice time… Both Marcel Goc and Alexander Sulzer also played in their second Olympic Games for Team Germany. Goc paced the German squad with two goals and three points in four games in addition to leading all team forwards in ice time (18:22). Sulzer also played in all four of Germany's games, averaging 15:09 of ice time.

OTHER PLAYER NOTABLES

- Martin Erat recorded one of the best goal-scoring months in franchise history during December 2009, tying for the League lead with 10 goals in 14 games – that tied the franchise record for most goals in a month (Jason Arnott, February 2009).
  The Trebic, Czech Republic native had a point in all but two of the 14 games he played during the month, tying for eighth in the NHL in points (10g-8a) in 2009's final 31 days. Three of the 10 goals came during Erat's second career hat trick on Dec. 8 vs. Vancouver.
- Kevin Klein saw a major increase in his ice time in 2009-10, averaging more than seven minutes more per game than he did in 2008-09. After averaging 12:39 a season ago, Klein saw a 19:55 per game this season, an increase of 7:16. Among skaters who played more than 60 games last season, he is the only one in the League with an increase of at least six minutes per contest.
- A couple of notables came out of Nashville's 6-5 overtime victory at Ottawa on Oct. 22. First, Shea Weber and Ryan Suter both scored a pair of goals, while Cody Franson tallied his first NHL goal, meaning five of Nashville's six goals came from defensemen. It was the most goals by the defensive corps in franchise history, and the most in the NHL since March 21, 2004 when the Edmonton Oilers had five goals from their blueliners in a 5-2 win over San Jose. The other goal came from J.P. Dumont, who also pitched in four assists to tie the franchise mark for points in a game. The only other Predators to record five points in a single game are Dan Hamhuis (1g-4a at Pittsburgh on March 4, 2004) and Marek Zidlicky (5a at February 18, 2004).

PATRIC HORNQVIST

HOMEGROWN TALENT

Of the 32 players to dress for at least one game for the Predators in 2009-10, a franchise-record 17 of them were drafted and developed by the organization. The previous club record was 12 picks both in 2008-09 and in 2006-07. Of those 17, five made their NHL debuts in 2009-10 (forwards Nick Spaling, Andreas Thuresson and Colin Wilson and defensemen Cody Franson and Teemu Laakso). Four players were selected in the first round by the club – David Legwand (2nd overall, 1998), Dan Hamhuis (12th overall, 2001), Ryan Suter (7th overall, 2003) and Wilson (7th overall, 2008) – four were taken in the second round – Kevin Klein (37th overall in 2003), Shea Weber (49th overall in 2003), Alexander Sulzer (92nd overall in 2003) and Spaling (58th overall in 2007) – a pair were picked in the third round –Laakso (78th overall in 2005) and Franson (79th overall in 2005) – Jordin Tootoo was picked in the fourth round (98th overall in 2001) – two were selected in the fifth round – Cal O'Reilly (150th overall in 2005) and Thuresson (144th overall in 2007) – one went in the sixth round – Mike Santorelli (178th overall in 2004) – a pair were tabbed in the seventh round – Martin Erat (191st overall in 1999) and Patric Hornqvist (230th overall in 2005) and goaltender Pekka Rinne was an eighth-round pick (258th overall in 2004).

PLAYOFFS

PLAYOFF NOTES

FIVE-OF-SIX SEASONS

Nashville's appearance in the 2010 Stanley Cup Playoffs was its fifth in the last six seasons, making it one of just four Western Conference teams (San Jose, Detroit and Calgary are the others), and eight teams overall (New Jersey, Ottawa, Philadelphia and Montreal from the East) to attain the feat. Predators Head Coach Barry Trotz is the only coach to lead his team to the postseason five times in this span, while the other seven teams have had a combined 25 coaches.

LEGWAND LEADS THE WAY

Nashville forward David Legwand paced the Predators in points during the 2010 Western Conference Quarterfinals, posting seven points (2g-5a) in six games, tying the franchise record for points and assists in a series. Nashville's first-ever draft pick (second overall in 1998) posted three multi-point contests during the series: he posted his first career postseason multi-point/assist outing in the series' opening game, then became the second player in franchise history to post three-or-more points in a playoff contest in Game Three (1g-2a). Legwand then notched a goal and an assist in Game Five. The Detroit, Mich., native, who entered the 2010 postseason with six points (2g-4a) in 19 playoff games, is now tied with Martin Erat for first on the club's all-time playoff points list (4g-9a).

ERAT TIES GOALS IN A SERIES MARK

With four goals in six 2010 playoff games, Martin Erat not only tied the franchise mark for goals in a postseason series, but moved into a tie with J.P. Dumont for first on the all-time playoff goal-scoring list (6). All four of Erat's goals in the series came in the third period, including his penalty-shot goal in Game Three, the 19th successful attempt on the 59th penalty shot in Stanley Cup Playoff history.

PLAYOFF QUICK HITS

Nashville took more shots (166) and scored more goals (15) in its 2010 playoff series than any other in franchise history… The Predators outhit the Blackhawks 188-127 for the series, averaging 31.3 hits per game after doling out an average of 17.3 hits per game during the regular season… The Predators were outshot 140-90 during the first two periods of their six games against the Hawks, but posted a 71-38 shot advantage in the third frame, and outscored them 7-3 in the final 20 minutes of regulation time… Dan Hamhuis is the only player to dress for all 28 of the club's playoff games… Pekka Rinne became the fourth Predators netminder to start a playoff game in 2010, and stopped 82 of the first 86 playoff shots he faced over three games, including 70-of-72 at even strength.

GAME ONE (April 16): Nashville 4, Chicago 1 at the United Center

NSH won its first road playoff game in franchise history… The Predators set a franchise record for goals in a playoff period with four in the third frame, and tied a club record for goals in a road playoff game… The Predators overcame a 1-0 deficit through 40 minutes – the Blackhawks went 35-1-3 in the regular season when leading after two periods. It was the first time in franchise history the club has won a playoff game when trailing after two periods… NSH's four penalty minutes was its lowest total ever in a playoff game… J.P. Dumont recorded his third multi-goal playoff game as a Predator… Pekka Rinne stopped 25-of-26 shots in his playoff debut, becoming the second NSH netminder to win his first playoff start (Chris Mason, 2006)… David Legwand was a plus-3 and notched a pair of assists, his first career multi-point game in the playoffs… NSH's last two goals were empty netters… Seven Predators made their playoff debuts, with two of them garnering assists – Cody Franson on Dumont's first goal, and Joel Ward on Martin Erat's empty netter.

GAME TWO (April 18): Chicago 2, Nashville 0 at the United Center

NSH was shut out in a playoff game for the fourth time in franchise history, but for the first time on the road… Ryan Suter tied a game high with six shots on net, and tied the franchise record for shots in a playoff period with four in the third… Pekka Rinne stopped 31-of-32 shots in his second career playoff game.

GAME THREE (April 20): Nashville 4, Chicago 1 at Bridgestone Arena

The Predators took a 2-1 series lead for the first time in franchise history. It is the first time they had led beyond Game One of a best-of-seven series… NSH tied the franchise record for margin of victory for the second time in three outings… The Predators outshot CHI 35-27, the largest shot margin in the franchise's postseason history… Martin Erat scored the franchise's first-ever playoff penalty-shot goal at 14:25 of the third period. It was the 19th successful attempt on the 59th penalty shot in Stanley Cup history… David Legwand (1g-2a) notched the second three-plus point game in franchise history… Pekka Rinne picked up his second playoff victory by stopping 26-of-27 shots… Steve Sullivan notched a pair of assists, his first playoff point(s) since April 30, 2006 and his first multi-point playoff performance since April 26, 1999 when his Toronto Maple Leafs topped the Philadelphia Flyers 2-1 in Game Three of the Eastern Conference Quarterfinals… Joel Ward scored his first career postseason goal… Kevin Klein notched his first career playoff point/assist.

GAME FOUR (April 22): Chicago 3, Nashville 0 at Bridgestone Arena

The Predators outshot Chicago for the second consecutive game, and had more or an even number shots as the Hawks for the third time in the series… The Predators were shutout for the fifth time in their playoff history… NSH outhit CHI (28-18), and all but one Nashville skater (Arnott) registered at least one hit in the game... The Predators won the face-off battle for the first time in the series (59 percent). Jason Arnott led the way with 12 wins on 21 draws (57 percent), while Jerred Smithson won five-of-seven face-offs… Ryan Suter (24:47) and Shea Weber (24:31) were the only Predators to log at least 20:00.

GAME FIVE (April 24): Chicago 5, Nashville 4 in overtime at United Center

The Predators went to overtime in a playoff game for the third time in franchise history… The Predators scored on three of their first nine shots… Joel Ward scored the fourth shorthanded goal in the club's playoff history… The penalty kill was a perfect four-for-four… NSH tied a franchise record for most goals in a road playoff game for the second time this series. The combined nine goals the teams scored also tied a club mark set twice before… Patrick Kane's tally at 19:46 of the third period was the third shorthanded goal against, and first extra-attacker goal against, in NSH's postseason history… In addition to his shorthanded goal, Ward assisted on Legwand's game-opening goal for his first career multi-point playoff performance… Denis Grebeshkov made his NHL playoff debut, and assisted on both of NSH's third-period goals.

GAME SIX (April 26): Chicago 5, Nashville 3 at Bridgestone Arena

NSH scored on the power play for the first time in the series with less than a minute remaining in the first period, the highest scoring period in the franchise's postseason history (seven goals)… The Predators outshot the Blackhawks 15-3 during the third period… NSH outhit CHI for the fifth time in six games (30-12)… Jason Arnott posted his first two-goal playoff performance since May 22, 2001 with New Jersey (Eastern Conference Finals vs. Pittsburgh)… Colin Wilson posted his first career playoff point/assist… Patric Hornqvist dressed for the first time since Game One, and posted his first career playoff point/assist… Shea Weber scored NSH's first goal, and assisted on Arnott's power-play tally, for his third career multi-point playoff outing.

MEDIA INFORMATION

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Tim Darling (615-770-2380), Kevin Wilson (615-770-2335) or Jessica Jones (615-770-2347) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to Bridgestone Arena and all working areas for all 2010-11 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email on company letterhead to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com) by 1:00 p.m. on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited; for this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be issued only to representatives of legitimate news-gathering agencies, websites and blogs and will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter the media/Patrón Platinum Club entrance of Bridgestone Arena on Fifth Avenue. The entrance will be open three hours prior to face-off and credentials will be available at this entrance after it has been opened.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may shoot from the photo boxes adjacent to the players' benches and other designated areas. Freelance photographers will not be permitted. Location assignments are issued by the Predators' communications department and coordinated with team photographer John Russell. No roving passes will be issued.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The press box and radio/TV booths are located at the top of arena seats in sections 310 and 311 (southwest corner of Bridgestone Arena). All media should take the southwest corner freight elevator to the fourth level. The press box is equipped with monitors, telephones and wireless internet service.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet service is available (free of charge) to media in the event-level media lounge and in the press box. The password can be attained through the Predators communications staff. For technical assistance, please contact Casey Millar at (615) 642-6203.

PRE-GAME
The Predators' locker room corridor will be open until 90 minutes before each game. A representative from the Predators communications department will be present to assist members of the media wishing to interview players. Television and radio stations seeking live or taped pregame interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to media relations representatives AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POST-GAME
Head Coach Barry Trotz will be available in the event-level media lounge for his postgame press conference following each home game. The Predators' locker rooms will open no later than 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game. Transcriptions of both head coaches' postgame press conferences, as well as various Predators and visitors player quotes from the dressing rooms will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Workrooms and pregame meals are available in the media dining area on the event level in the northwest corner of the arena. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to sections 310 and 311. Statistical information, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open 10 minutes (maximum) after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A communications representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

OFF-LIMITS
The medical room and shower and lavatory areas will be closed to all media. The main locker room will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS
Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Barry Trotz and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Bridgestone Arena opened in December 1996 and has hosted more than 12 million guests. It has become Nashville's No. 1 venue for large-scale musical productions, as well as one of the nation's most highly-acclaimed entertainment and sports venues. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,113 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena, the Gaylord Entertainment Center and the Sommet Center, the building became Bridgestone Arena on February 23, 2010 after Bridgestone Americas Inc., which is headquartered in Nashville, entered into a multi-year naming-rights and marketing partnership with the Predators and Powers Management. Bridgestone Americas, Inc. (BSAM) is the U.S. subsidiary of Bridgestone Corporation, the world's largest tire and rubber company. BSAM and its subsidiaries develop, manufacture and market a wide range of Bridgestone, Firestone and associate brand tires to address the needs of a broad range of customers, including consumers, automotive and commercial vehicle original equipment manufacturers, and those in the agricultural, forestry and mining industries. The companies are also engaged in retreading operations throughout the Western Hemisphere and produce air springs, roofing materials, and industrial fibers and textiles. The BSAM family of companies also operates the world's largest chain of automotive tire and service centers.

A new state-of-the-art integrated scoring and video display system using the latest in sports videoboard technology was installed in the building in August 2007, and has been in operation for the past three seasons. Designed and constructed by ANC Sports in New York, the board is 100 percent LED-based and runs on a digital operating system, which also required a new control room to be built near the entrance tunnel to the arena bowl. The renovations were part of a more than $4 million facelift to Bridgestone Arena during the summer of 2007.

The entrance to Bridgestone Arena is positioned on the corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue facing the Ryman Auditorium, the original home of the Grand Ole Opry. The architects designed this as a tribute to Nashville's music roots.

The development of the arena exemplifies the city's changing persona and has been a catalyst for other projects in the surrounding area including the Country Music Hall of Fame, the downtown public library, the Frist Center for the Visual Arts and the Schermerhorn Symphony Center. A number of downtown living options – including several new condominiums – continue to spring up in close proximity to Bridgestone Arena.

Initiated by Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, Bridgestone Arena uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, U.S.A." For the event planner, the spectator, the athlete and the performer, the arena is equipped to deliver the latest in high-quality, "user-friendly" features. A soundstage-quality rehearsal hall is a part of the facility, making the arena a perfect site for concert performers.

In addition to serving as the home of the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena has hosted a wide variety of sporting events including the U.S. National Figure Skating Championships (1997), the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament (2000, 2003 & 2005), the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament (2001, 2006, 2010), the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament (2002, 2004 & 2008) and the 2003 NHL Entry Draft. The venue has also been awarded the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four, the 2011 and 2012 SEC Women's Basketball Tournaments and the 2013, 2015, 2016 and 2019 SEC Men's Basketball Tournament. It will also host the first and second rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament again in 2012.

In May and June, 2010, Bridgestone Arena held several events to benefit relief efforts sparked by the devastating floods in the Nashville area. Efforts were highlighted by the June 22 "Nashville Rising" concert which saw $2.2 million raised and performances by the likes of Taylor Swift, Miley Cyrus, Tim McGraw, Carrie Underwood and many more.

Other community events have included the annual Mayor's First Day Festival and the Country Freedom Concert benefiting the Salvation Army Disaster Relief Fund. The venue has also hosted the CMA Awards show the past four years (2006-09), which were broadcasted live to national audiences on network television.

Featured performers at Bridgestone Arena have included Beyonce, Garth Brooks, Coldplay, Justin Timberlake, Elton John, Billy Joel, Metallica, Celine Dion, Cher, Paul McCartney, Simon & Garfunkel, Bruce Springsteen, Eric Clapton, The Rolling Stones, Neil Diamond, Tina Turner, Alan Jackson, Keith Urban, Kenny Chesney as well as Tim McGraw and Faith Hill.

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

- Nominated for the Pollstar Concert Industry Venue of the Year award for three straight years (2007-09).
- Won 2008 Large Concert Venue of the Year Award from the International Entertainment Buyers Association and 2008 and 2009 Prime Site Award from Facilities Magazine.
- Winner of the 2009 Academy of Country Music Venue of the Year Award.
- Features a 22-story tower that (in its base) houses the Nashville Convention & Visitors Bureau Visitors' Center, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, XM Radio studio/channel and a 70-seat theater.
- The Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) operates a state-of-the-art Visitor Information Center in the glass tower of Bridgestone Arena. The staffed center, which welcomes more than half a million visitors a year, is open seven days a week, with extended hours in the summer and during Bridgestone Arena events. In addition to literature, maps, discount coupons and general information, the center features exhibits, children's programming ideas, an on-line information station and a great selection of Nashville merchandise. For more information, visit nashvillecvb.com.
- The Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame Museum is a 7,200-sq.-ft. facility located on the main level of Bridgestone Arena. The Museum features interactive games and displays such as a Nashville Predators showcase, a virtual reality one-on-one basketball game, a strength training apparatus used by Olympic swimmers, college football and basketball exhibits, NASCAR video games, two 30-seat theaters with sports videos and more.
- The 260-seat, 7,000 square-foot. Patrón Platinum Club is located on the lower suite level and is accessible from Fifth Avenue. A central kitchen and full catering facility serves the club as well as the suites and club seats. The fine-dining experience is open before and after games and hosts a number of banquets and receptions. To make reservations, call 615-770-2477.
- The 225-seat All-Inclusive Zone is at the south end Bridgestone Arena overlooking the ice. In addition, the club-level bar and grill on the building's west side has been upgraded to feature cafe-style tables and seating.
- Completed in November 2008, the FOX Sports Tennessee Zone is a sports bar located just off the main concourse. It hosts Predators Live! a post-game show featuring highlights and interviews. The FOX Sports Tennessee Zone features tabletop seating and flat-screen high-definition televisions.
- A 13,500 square-foot rehearsal hall is connected to Bridgestone Arena. The space, used by a number of touring acts, is available for rent.
- The Predators Pro Shop is located in the main lobby and is accessible from the entrance at Fifth and Broadway. For store hours and information, please call (615) 770-2434.
- Bridgestone Arena hosts Metro's Registry of Deeds (615-862-6790) and the Metro North Police precinct.
- From floor to ceiling, the highest point in the Bridgestone Arena reaches 130 feet (about the height of a 13-story building) with the roof covering eight acres.
- There are four levels of seating at the arena. Handicapped-accessible seating is available at every level and the building holds two escalators.
- Linked to the Nashville Convention Center by a climate-controlled underground pedestrian walkway, the building is able to accommodate large conventions and major national entertainment and sporting events.
- An attached parking garage includes 250 parking spaces for suiteholders, handicapped patrons and regular patron parking. There are more than 12,500 public parking spaces located within a 10-minute walk from the facility.

- Intoxicated patrons will not be allowed into Bridgestone Arena, and will be subject to ejection if found inside the building.
- All fans in Bridgestone Arena must be properly dressed at all times. Shirts and shoes are required at all times and clothing which include profanity are prohibited. Fans dressed inappropriately will be subject to ejection from the facility.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

222 25th Avenue North, Nashville, TN 37203 • (615) 862-8480

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex.

The $20 million, 145,000 square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous U.S. Senior and Junior National Swim Meets, the YMCA National Swim Meet and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility which opened on February 1, 1999. The Sportsplex is also the home of the Predators' youth hockey school, summer development camp and training camp.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

The fitness center includes free weights and weight machines for complete workouts as well as daily aerobics classes.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offer special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at 615-862-8480.

ORDER OF SELECTION FOR 2011 ENTRY DRAFT

The NHL's annual Draft Drawing is a weighted lottery system to determine the order of selection for the first 14 picks of the 2011 Entry Draft.

The 14 teams that did not qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs, or clubs that acquired those clubs' 2011 first-round draft picks, participate in the Drawing.

The Club selected in the drawing may not move up more than four positions in the draft order, thus only the five Clubs with the fewest regular-season points have the opportunity to receive the first overall selection.

No Club can move down more than one position as a result of the Draft Drawing.

In the first round of the 2011 Entry Draft, the order of selection is as follows:

a) The first 14 selections, as determined by the Draft Drawing (see above);
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

In the second and subsequent rounds the order of selection is as follows:

a) Non-playoff clubs in inverse order of points;
b) Clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, regular-season division winners excluded, in inverse order of points;
c) Regular-season division winning clubs eliminated in the first two rounds of the 2011 Stanley Cup Playoffs, in inverse order of points;
d) Clubs eliminated in the 2011 Conference Finals, in inverse order of points;
e) Stanley Cup finalist
f) Stanley Cup champion

ELIGIBILITY FOR CLAIM

a) All players age 18 or older are eligible for claim in the Entry Draft, except:

i. A player on the Reserve List of a Club, other than as a try-out;
ii. A player who has been claimed in two prior Entry Drafts;
iii. A player who previously played in the League and became a Free Agent pursuant to this Agreement;
iv. A player age 21 or older who: (A) has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and (B) played hockey for at least one season in North America when he was age 18, 19, or 20 and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d); and 18
v. A player age 22 or older who has not been selected in a previous Entry Draft and shall be eligible to enter the League as an Unrestricted Free Agent pursuant to Article 10.1(d).

UNSIGNED DRAFT CHOICES

a) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the first three rounds of the Entry Draft and who was not signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by the Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

b) A player aged 18 or 19 who was selected in the fourth or subsequent rounds who has not been signed by his NHL Club may not be retained by his Club and must be returned to his junior Club no later than the fourth day prior to the opening of the NHL regular season.

ENTRY LEVEL PLAYERS

1. Players 18 through 21 years of age when signing their first contract must remain in the entry-level system for a period of three years; players age 22 and 23 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for two years; while those age 24 when signing their first contract are in the entry level system for one year. Age is defined as the player's age on Sept. 15 of the calendar year in which he signs the contract, regardless of his actual age on the date he signs such contract.

2. In the event that a signed 18 or 19-year-old player does not play a minimum of 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in his first season under contract, the term of his player contract and his number of years in the entry level system will be extended for a period of one year. The exception to this is a 19-year-old player who turns 20 years of age between Sept. 16 and Dec. 31 in his first contract year.

3. In the event that a player signs his first contract at age 18 and has had his Player Contract extended for one season already, and such player does not play at least 10 NHL games (regular season and/or playoffs) in the second season under that player's Player Contract, then the term of his Player Contract and his number of years in the Entry Level System shall be extended for one additional year.

23-MAN ROSTER

There may be a maximum of 23 players on each Club's playing roster at any one time from the commencement of the NHL regular season through the trade deadline. Prior to the start of the season, each Club must submit to the NHL its "Opening Day Playing Roster" which shall be comprised of not more than 23 players. Each Club must have a roster of at least 20 players, composed of 18 skaters and two goaltenders. Players on Injured Reserve do not count in the 23-Man Roster limit.

INJURED RESERVE LIST

In the event that a player is injured and a Club wishes to place him on the Injured Reserve List, the Club must follow these procedures.

1. A Club may place a player on the injured reserve list if such player is injured, disabled or ill and unable to perform his duties as a hockey player after having passed the Club's initial physical examination in that season.
2. A player who has an injury that renders him physically unable to play for a minimum of seven days after that date of the injury can be placed on the Club's Injured Reserve List. Once a player is placed on the injured reserve, the Club may replace said player on its NHL roster with another player. All determinations that a player has suffered an injury warranting injured reserve status must be made by the Club's medical staff and in accordance with the Club's medical standards.
3. A player placed on Injured Reserve is ineligible to compete in NHL games for a period of not less than seven days from the date of injury.
4. Players on Injured Reserve may attend Club meetings and meals, travel with the Club and participate in practice sessions.
5. Players on Injured Reserve are prohibited from appearing in games, participating in pre-game warm-ups with their Clubs, or dressing in game uniforms on game days.

REGULAR SEASON WAIVERS

For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the five-year exemption for an 18-year-old skater and the four-year exemption for a 19-year-old skater shall both be reduced to three years commencing the first season that the 18 or 19-year-old skater plays in eleven NHL games or more. The next two seasons, regardless of whether the skater plays any NHL games in either season, shall count as the second and third years toward satisfying the exemption. For purposes of Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers, the six-year exemption for an 18-year-old goalie and the five-year exemption for a 19-year-old goalie shall both be reduced to four years commencing the first season that the 18 or-19 year-old goalie plays in eleven NHL games or more. The next three seasons, regardless of whether the goalie plays any NHL Games in any of those three seasons, shall count as the next three years toward satisfying the exemption.

The first season in which a player who is age 20 or older plays in one-or-more professional games shall constitute the first year for calculating the number of years he is exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers.

A Player 25 years old or older who plays in one-or-more professional games in any season shall be exempt from Regular Waivers and Re-Entry Waivers for the remainder of that season.

TIE-BREAKING PROCEDURES

At the conclusion of the regular season, the standing of the teams in each Conference shall be determined in accordance with the following priorities in the order listed:

a) First place in each of the three divisions seeded 1, 2, and 3.
b) The higher number of points earned by the Club.
c) The greater number of games won by the Club.
d) The higher number of points earned in games against each other among two-or-more Clubs having equal standing under priority (b) and (c) **
e) The greater differential between goals scored for and against by Clubs having equal standing under priority (d).

 NOTE: For the purpose of determining standing under priority (d) for two or more tied Clubs that have not played an even number of games with one or more of the other tied Clubs, the first game played in the city that has the extra game (the "odd game") shall not be included. When more than two Clubs are tied, the percentage of available points earned in games among each other (and not including any "odd games") shall be used to determine standing.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

ABDUCTION: Movement of a joint away from the center of the body.

AC JOINT (ACROMIOCLAVICULAR JOINT): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the shoulder blade and the distal end of the collarbone meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

ADDUCTION: Movement of a joint toward the center of the body.

ADHESION: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved; or scar tissue which forms after trauma or surgery which can restrict normal motion.

AEROBIC: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

ANABOLIC STEROIDS: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormone).

ANAEROBIC: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

ANTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

ANTI-INFLAMMATORY: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

ARTERIOGRAM: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

ARTHROGRAM: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

ARTHROSCOPE: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

ARTHROSCOPY: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means of observation through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

ATROPHY: To shrivel or shrink from disuse; as in muscular atrophy.

BAKER'S CYST: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the back of the knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

BONE SCAN: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a 'hot spot' on the scan image.The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

BURSA: A fluid-filled sac located in areas where friction is likely to occur. The bursa sac minimizes the friction, for example, between a tendon and bone.

CARTILAGE: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating. Most joints use this to cover bones next to each other. A meniscus is made of cartilage.

CAT SCAN (COMPUTERIZED TOMOGRAPHY): Use of a computer to produce a cross-sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

CHONDROMALACIA: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the kneecap, which can occur in any kneecap injury.

CLAVICLE: Collarbone; the bone connecting the breastbone with the shoulder blade.

COCCYX: The 'tailbone,' a group of four vertebrae that are fused together to form a small triangular bone, located at the terminal end of the spine.

CONCUSSION: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

CONTUSION: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

CORTICOSTEROIDS: Used to suppress joint inflammation and inflammation in a bursa or near tendons.

CRYOTHERAPY: A treatment with the use of cold.

CYST: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

DEGENERATIVE JOINT DISEASE: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma and 'wear and tear'.

DELTOID LIGAMENT: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

DELTOID MUSCLE: Muscles at the top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions in the front, side and back.

DISC INTERVERTEBRAL: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

DISLOCATION: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

ELECTROMYOGRAM (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

EPICONDYLITIS: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse. Common in tennis players (outer part of elbow) and golfers (inner part of elbow).

ETIOLOGY: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

EXTENSION: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

FASCIA: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

FAT PERCENTAGE: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentage can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

FEMUR: Thighbone; longest bone in the body.

FIBULA: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from the knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

FLEXIBILITY: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

FRACTURE: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

GLENOHUMERAL: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

GLENOID: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

GLENOID LABRUM: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

GRADE ONE INJURY: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

GRADE TWO INJURY: A moderate injury in which musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn, causing appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

GRADE THREE INJURY: A severe injury in which tissue loss has been significant, and in many cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted, causing a virtual loss of function.

GROIN: Junction of the thigh and abdomen, location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

HAMMER TOE: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle that the remaining digits of the same toe.

HAMSTRING: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

MEDICAL GLOSSARY

HEMARTHROSIS: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

HEMATOMA: Mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity or in soft tissues.

HIP POINTER: Contusion to the iliac crest.

HYDROTHERAPY: Treatment using water.

HYPEREXTENSION: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

ILIOTIBIAL BAND: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint on the outside of the thigh.

INFLAMMATION: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

ISOMETRIC CONTRACTION: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

LABRUM (LABRUM GLENOIDULE): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

LATERAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the outer aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

LIGAMENT: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

MAGNETIC RESONANCE IMAGING (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

MEDIAL COLLATERAL LIGAMENT (MCL): Ligament of knee along the inner aspect that connects the femur to the tibia.

MENISCUS: Crescent-shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as cartilage. There are two menisci in the knee -medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

METACARPALS: Five long bones of the hand, joining the fingers to the wrist.

METATARSALS: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

MYOSITIS: Inflammation of a muscle.

ORTHOTIC: Any device applied to or around the body of physical impairment of disability. Commonly used to control foot mechanics.

OSTEOCHONDRITIS DESSICANS: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

OSTEOMYELITIS: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus bacteria.

PATELLA: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

PLANTAR FASCIITIS: Inflammation of the plantar (a thick tissue on the bottom of the foot which helps create the arch) fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injury.

POSTERIOR CRUCIATE LIGAMENT (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

QUADRICEP MUSCLES: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

RADIUS: Bone in the forearm from elbow to the thumb side of the wrist.

RECONSTRUCTION: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

ROTATOR CUFF: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SACROILIAC: Junction of the sacrum, the lower back bone, with the pelvis.

SACRUM: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back, which form part of the pelvis.

SCAPULA: Shoulder blade.

SCIATICA: Irritation of the sciatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

SCIATIC NERVE: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

SHIN SPLINT: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

SPLEEN: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells located under the left rib cage.

SPONDYLOSIS: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

SPRAIN: Injury resulting from the stretching or twisting of the joint and causes various degrees of stretching or tearing of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

STRAIN: Injury resulting from a pulling or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretching or tearing to the muscle or tendon tissue.

STRESS FRACTURE: A hair-line type of break in a bone. Caused by overuse.

SUBLUXATION: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to a normal position without formal reduction.

SYNOVIAL FLUID: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

SYNOVITIS: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

TALUS: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

TARSALS: Group of seven bones of the foot consisting of the calnavicular, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

TENDINITIS: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

TENDON: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

TENOSYNOVITIS: Swelling or inflammation of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

TIBIA: Shin bone; larger of the two bones of the lower leg and is the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

TRANSCUTANEOUS ELECTRICAL NERVE STIMULATOR (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic endorphin.

TRANSVERSE PROCESS: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebrae that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

TRICEPS: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

ULNA: Inner bone of the forearm that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

ULNAR NERVE: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

ULTRASOUND: An electrical modality that transmits a sound wave through an applicator into the skin to the soft tissue in order to heat the local area for relaxing the injured tissue and/or disperse edema.

HOW TO FIGURE

Assist: An assist is awarded to the player or players (maximum of two) who touched the puck prior to the goal, provided no defender plays or possesses the puck in between.

Game played: A player receives credit for playing in a game if: i) he steps on the ice during time played or; ii) serves any penalty.

Game-winning goal: After the final score has been determined, the goal which leaves the winning club one goal ahead of its opponent is the game-winning goal (example: if Team A beats Team B 8-3, the player scoring the fourth goal for Team A receives credit for the game-winning goal).

Goal: A goal is awarded to the last player on the scoring club to touch the puck prior to the puck entering the net.

Goals-against average: Multiply goals allowed (GA) by 60 and divide by minutes played (MINS).

Goaltender: A goaltender receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

Penalty-killing pct.: Subtract total number of power-play goals allowed from total number of shorthanded situations to get total number of power-plays killed. Divide the total number of power-plays killed by the total number of shorthanded situations.

Plus-minus: A player receives a "plus" if he is on the ice when his club scores an even-strength or shorthanded goal. He receives a "minus" if he is on the ice for an even-strength or shorthanded goal scored by the opposing club. The difference in these numbers is considered the player's plus-minus statistic.

Power-play goal: A goal scored by a club while it has a manpower advantage due to an opponent's penalty. Following are some examples of what is and is not considered a power-play goal:

- if a club has an advantage on a minor penalty starting at 2:02 of the period and it scores at 4:02, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club scores on a delayed penalty, the goal is not a power-play goal.
- if a club has an advantage due to a five-minute major or match penalty, that club is always credited with having one more advantage than the number of power-play goals it scores during that advantage, because the penalty does not expire. A new advantage begins after each power-play goal. For example, if Team A scores three goals during a major penalty, it is credited with four advantages.
- if a club is on a power-play for any length of time, it is considered to have had an advantage.
- if a minor penalty is incurred by a club on a power-play due to a major penalty, a new advantage is given to that club when its minor penalty expires, provided the opponent's major penalty is still in effect.

Power-play percentage: Total number of power-play goals divided by total number of power-play opportunities.

Save percentage: Subtract goals allowed (GA) from shots against (SA) to determine saves. Then divide saves by shots-against.

Shooting percentage: Divide the number of goals scored by the number of shots taken.

Shorthanded goal: A goal scored by a club while it is at a manpower disadvantage. The same cases apply for shorthanded as for power-play goals, but in the opposite manner.

Shot on goal: If a player shoots the puck with the intention of scoring and if that shot would have gone in the net had the goaltender not stopped it, the shot is recorded as a "shot on goal."

Shutout: If two goaltenders combine for a shutout, neither receives credit for the shutout. Instead it is recorded as a club shutout.

Tenths of a second: If a penalty or goal occurs in the last minute, the time is rounded off to the previous second (ex: if a penalty is called with 12.4 seconds left in a period, the time is indicated as 19:47 and not 19:48.)

Coaches' record: A coach receives a "W" for a win in regulation, overtime or shootout; an "L" for a loss in regulation; or an "OT" for a loss in overtime or shootout.

 NOTE: No individual skater/goaltender statistics apply for the shootout

NAME & LOGO

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on September 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address.

In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Construction workers drilled through 20 feet of solid rock before coming to a soft muddy area. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years.

Radiocarbon tests on the specimen revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marks only the fifth of its kind in North America. The cave, located beneath the building, is preserved under concrete for historic and educational purposes.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.

The naming of the Predators is a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

On September 27, 1997, Nashville's NHL expansion team hosted the Ice Breaker Bash to launch a season ticket campaign that would ultimately sell over 12,000 season tickets in just six months.

During the Bash and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by an overwhelming two-to-one margin over the second choice. On November 13, 1997, in front of 3,000 enthusiastic fans at The Wildhorse Saloon in downtown Nashville, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it.

On February 12, 1998, Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys in front of 2,000 fans at Cool Springs Galleria.

On November 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey in a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at Bridgestone Arena. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player. The uniforms were the result of more than two years of research and testing by Reebok, and they feature technologically advanced materials and fabrics that are more breathable, more water-resistant, more comfortable and more compatible with equipment. The implementation of the Rbk EDGE Uniform System marked the first time in the history of North American professional sports that a uniform innovation was introduced League-wide.

The Predators would debut a second third jersey on November 27, 2009 against the St. Louis Blues. The sweaters, which will be worn on select home dates during the 2010-11 season, feature a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey, and a bolder and more simplified color scheme. This new color scheme is evident in the Pred-head logo, including colors such as Nashville steel, navy blue, silver, white, and a glowing eye, all changes from its predecessor.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983.

Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, current Predators assistant coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semi-finals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers. "The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success – all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.

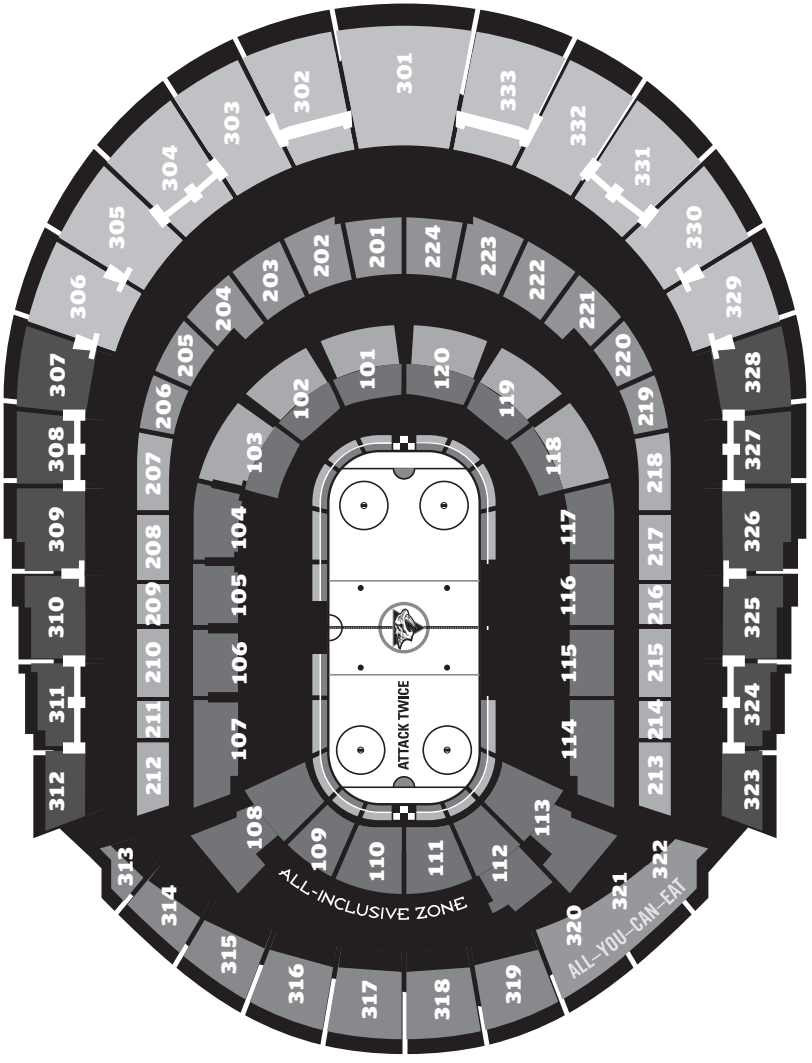
BRIDGESTONE ARENA MAP



BRIDGESTONE

Sure, it's just a tire.
Like the Golden Gate is just a bridge.

For drivers who want to get the most out of their cars,

IT'S BRIDGESTONE OR NOTHING.

Sure, it's just a tire.
Like the Grand Canyon is just a big crack.

For drivers who want to get the most out of their cars,
